$2-Million School Plan Due Review

By LOREN MacARTHUR

Whether to carry through a two-million-dollar rebuilding and enlargement program at San Rafael High School was referred last night to a citizen committee which the board chairman minutes before had declared should not review the program.

During two hours of discussion at a special San Rafael Board of Education meeting, all five members of the board said they had no inkling that a two-million-dollar program might be envisioned for San Rafael High until architects Carl F. Gromme and Ralph B. Priestley presented it last Tuesday night.

HOT POTATO

The board handed the hot potato to the Citizen Committee on School Finance and Facilities which had filed its "final" report in February, asking that it report back by June 25.

"At no time was this amount of money mentioned," said L. E. Weisenburg Jr., one of five members of the committee who appeared last night to question the proposal. "Suddenly the whole picture has changed. I seriously question if we have anyone here to determine if we're getting the best for our money."

The proposed plan calls for tearing down the school library and eight classrooms behind the main building and replacing them with a two-story building with 34 classrooms and a library. The cost of this was estimated at $927,000. Another $665,000 was recommended as necessary for rehabilitating the main building. The remainder of the two million dollars would go for other improvements at the school.

DOUBLE SESSIONS

The architects said students should go on double sessions for a year while the construction is being completed.

The architects suggested Terra Linda High first be enlarged to 2,000 capacity, then San Rafael High be expanded to the same size.

"When I came on the board, I questioned the facilities at Terra Linda High School because they seemed large," said board member Mrs. Bella Aaron, "I was told it was being built for a capacity of 3,000. Now we're talking about 2,000 at each high school.

If facilities at Terra Linda have been built for 3,000, there will be wasted space and wasted expenditure if we don't plan for 3,000 students there."

"The whole premise is that it would ultimately accommodate 3,000," said Gromme. "It's not built for 3,000 yet."

AT CAPACITY

"We expect an enrollment of 2,126 at San Rafael High School by 1966," said Supt. Bert C. Corona. "We expect 2,400 the same year at Terra Linda. Both schools are operating nearly at capacity. We have only $1,286,000 available for building. We will have to do something."

Terra Linda now has 1,310 students; San Rafael has 1,661.

Corona said the high school district has one million dollars in bonds authorized by the voters but yet unsold, $136,000 in bonds sold and waiting to be

SAN RAFAEL BUDGET NOW $2,754,676

A $2,754,676 San Rafael city budget proposal has been distributed to city councilmen, but City Mgr. Dan E. Andersen was quick to admit today that total figures shown are meaningless.

Also meaningless is a project surplus of $1,872,562 at the end of the 1963-64 fiscal year.

Several major items have been left out, Andersen explained in a cover letter, either because council policy decisions must be made first or because the actual costs are not known.

Missing are such items as construction of a city hall, the Third Street and San Pedro Road improvement project, and parking lot acquisition.

Financial studies are now being made on exactly how the city could finance all the improvements which have been proposed.

Also, as of Monday night, the Recreation Department budget is up in the air, because of the prospect of leasing the American Legion Hall as a recreation center.

The city budget for the present fiscal year is $2,409,761.

Andersen said the city will have one large new source of Thousands View Pope Last Time

COMBINED AP & UPI

VATICAN CITY — In silence and awe, tens of thousands of people filed past the body of Pope John XXIII in St. Peter's Basilica today.

As they had their last look at a humble pope who had been closer to the people than most, the cardinals of the Roman Catholic Church took up their duties of interim administration and sorrowful tradition.

The 32 cardinals in Rome held a 70-minute meeting. A Vatican source said they decided to call a conclave June 19 for the election of a new pontiff.

Carpenters already were at work on construction for the conclave in and around the Sistine Chapel where the cardinals will chose Pope John's successor.

At the meeting the dean of the College of Cardinals, French-born Eugent Tisserant, smashed Pope John's fisherman's ring with hammer and chisel. A new ring, the symbol of papal authority, will be created for the new pontiff.

The first vote by the cardinals on the new pontiff will be taken on June 20, the day after the conclave begins.

Student Job Bill Passes

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The legislature today sent to Gov. Edmund G. Brown's desk his bill to train high school students to hold jobs in the age of automation.

Final approval of the bill by Assemblyman Edward E. Elliott (D-Los Angeles) came on unanimous Assembly concurrence to minor Senate amendments.

The measure creates a Commission on Manpower, Automation and Technology that would permit the state to take advantage of a one-million-dollar federal grant.

Y. R. ASK SEN. KUCHEL TO RETRACT HIS SPEECH

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Los Angeles County Young Republicans demanded last night that U.S. Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel (R-Calif.), make a public retraction of his recent speech attacking political extremists.

Kuchel, in a Senate address last month, termed extremists "fright peddlers."

The 5,000-member Young Republican group, meeting in a downtown hotel, passed a resolution censuring Kuchel after unsuccessful attempts had been made to dilute the wording. The action came on a split, standing vote.

Former Sen. William F. Knowland, who addressed the meeting earlier, told the group that Arizona's Sen. Barry Goldwater is the likely Republican presidential nominee next year.

Two Ships Collide Off Gate

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A hull-piercing collision in dense fog of Japanese and American freighters forced the 44 Japanese crewmen to abandon ship last night 30 miles from the entrance of San Francisco Bay.

Two Coast Guard cutters rescued 43 of the Japanese crewmen from heavy seas. One was missing and feared drowned. The 43 had been adrift five hours in wind-tossed rafts.

Commercial tugs secured a towing line to the outbound freighter Kokoku Maru and started pumping out flooded holds of the boiler room as she drifted toward a small island in the Farallon group.

The Kokoku Maru and the Military Sea Transport Service refrigerator ship Asterion collided in dense fog and heavy seas about 10 p.m. yesterday.

Two other crewmen of the Japanese vessel were injured, the Coast Guard said, and were rushed here for medical aid.

No injuries was reported on the Asterion.

The Asterion, a U.S. government-owned freighter operated by civilians, returned to San Francisco under her own power. She was held off port by the Navy until an oil leak was repaired. She had a hole in her bow above the water line.

The Kokoku Maru was drifting near South Farallon Island, and dangerously close to its rocky shoreline.

The Coast Guard said the hole ripped in the boiler room of the Japanese ship let in tons of water and flooded the engine room, the fire room and No. 3 hold.

There was no explanation for the collision, which happened in fog so dense that visibility was zero.

About five hours later, her crewmen were spotted in two life rafts by Coast Guard vessels.

Railroad Service Ordered Restored For San Rafael

The Interstate Commerce Commission today ordered Northwestern Pacific Railroad to restore service to San Rafael, interrupted nearly two years ago by collapse of the Puerto Suello tunnel.

Three ICC commissioners in Washington, D. C., sitting as Division 3 of the regulatory body, voted to deny application of NWP through its sole owner, Southern Pacific Co., to abandon the tunnel and about two and one-half miles of track from downtown San Rafael to a point north of Puerto Suello hill.

Word of the ruling was received through a telegram to the legal office of the Santa Fe Railroad in San Francisco, which was one of protestants against the NWP proposal.

This action confirmed recommendation by ICC Examiner F. Roy Linn, who last Sept. 17 filed his view that service should be resumed. This came after extensive San Francisco hearings starting in January of last year and continuing into June.

Participating were Commissioners Rupert L. Murphy, vice chairman of the ICC, Kenneth H. Tuggle and William H. Tucker, who in such an action represent the entire commission.

Tuggle was one of three commissioners who on Jan. 24, 1962, refused to let NWP abandon its Sausalito branch although the examiner in the case had recommended abandonment.

Whether the long fight is really at its end won't be certain for a few days, but indications were strong that such may prove the case.

Southern Pacific offices in San Francisco lacked word of the decision this morning. It was pointed out, however, that attorney Randolph Karr will obtain text of the action by airmail and must study and confer for several days before policy can be announced.

Boris H. Lakusta, special counsel for the City of San Rafael, was out of town today, but his associate E. Myron Bull, who was also listed as attorney in the proceedings, was in optimistic mood.

"This is a final decision and it would be very difficult for the railroad to overturn it," said Bull. "Our office feels that the case is settled."

Bull had talked earlier with Frederick G. Pfrommer, Santa Fe attorney, whose office first received the telegraphic word. Santa Fe, which claims loss of about half million dollars in rail revenue yearly so long as normal NWP operation in Ma-

Both Schools Proposals Fail In Larkspur

Both Larkspur School District fund raising measures were defeated yesterday in an election which brought out 42 per cent of those registered.

The $700,000 bond issue, requiring a two-thirds majority, got only 1,110 "yes" votes to 984 "no" votes.

The 85-cent tax limit hike was defeated by 1,227 "no" to 944 "yes."

The bond issue received two-thirds majority at two of the five polling places: San Clemente and Neil Cummins Schools, both in Corte Madera. The tax increase carried only at the Neil Cummins School.

The bond proposal was for adding 20 classrooms to the district's four schools. The tax proposal was to reduce class sizes, provide additional supervisory and teacher services and equipment, make some building repairs, and increase teacher salaries. It would have raised the limit on the district's operating tax from the present $2.10 per $100 assessed valuation to $2.95 for an indefinite period. The district also levies for bond retirement (32 cents this year) and over-ride taxes (33 cents).

There was no statement today from Supt. Milton S. Cohen, who was in San Jose to attend the funeral of Mrs. Pearl Lannin, mother of his wife. Mrs. Lannin died Sunday night.

A pamphlet sent out by the district said if the election "does not carry, we will simply have to hold another election as soon as possible."

Cohen had said if the bond issue failed, the district would be forced to put some classes on double sessions in the fall of 1965.

Shelter Cove To Be On Ballot

Sausalito residents will be asked to go to the polls on or before the April municipal election to vote in a referendum on city acquisition of eight Shelter Cove lots it already has bought and paid for.

The election, or the rescinding of the council's resolution approving the purchase, is necessary following a district court of appeal ruling which decided acquisition is a proper subject for referendum.

The council voted last night to call the referendum.

If the resolution were rescinded, City Atty. Leland H. Jordan told the council, the city would be frustrating the judge's ruling.

In a separate but related action, Warren Glass of Sausalito has brought a taxpayer's suit against Councilmen Howard Sievers, Michael Harris and former Councilman Philip S. Ehrlich Jr., asking for damages, holding the council was at fault in improper expenditure of city funds. The suit is awaiting trial.

JFK Warns Against Idea Of Bomb War

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) — President John F. Kennedy said today the surest way to bring war is to embrace the idea of a nuclear stalemate —to believe that war is too terrible to happen.

In this fashion, Kennedy began a four-day Western trip on a somber note. However, in the same address prepared for the fifth graduating class of the Air Force Academy, Kennedy wound up with a brighter prophecy.

"We believe," he said, "in the ability of man to triumph over the terrible forces he has created. We believe in the dignity of man and his eternal right to be free. And we believe, finally, that we are going to prevail."

The academy was the first stop on a fast-paced tour of four Western states that will give Kennedy an up-to-date look at space age defense plus a chance to do some old-fashioned politicking.

It was announced here that the president will go ahead with his trip to Italy within the

Court Hears Argument Over Fence At Stinson

The Battle of the Stinson Beach "Iron Curtain" continued today in Marin Superior Court before Judge Joseph G. Wilson.

Some irate residents of the community have given the "Iron Curtain" title to an iron rail fence that cuts off Stinson Beach from the Seadrift Beach.

The William Kent Estate Co., represented by attorney Bryan McCarthy, contends that the property line was fixed as a permanent line at the mean high water mark existing in 1949. Therefore, any part of the beach above that mean high water line is private property and not open to the public, McCarthy argues.

The trouble is that the actual high water mark shifts from year to year. Today, the 1949 high water line is under water. Under the Kent Estate Company's theory, a bather or beach stroller would have to wear deep sea diving equipment to "walk" along the public beach today.

Deputy Dist. Atty. Thomas T. Storer and Deputy Atty. Gen. Ralph W. Scott, on the other hand, contend that any beach is open to the public up to the existing high water mark. In other words, if erosion shifts the beachline, the public's right to stroll shifts with it.

Stinson Beach residents Joyce Moran and Marie Couderce told the judge yesterday they rode their beach buggy onto the Seadrift beach and were ordered off by Mrs. Millicent Nielson, Seadrift's office manager.

The trial is expected to continue for the rest of this week.

Teacher Will Take Part In Defense Drills After All

A Novato High School teacher who refused to participate in a civil defense drill on May 27 promised the Novato Unified School District board last night that he'll do his part hereafter.

William Luft, arts and crafts teacher for seven years at the high school, was called "on the carpet" by Supt. James G. Bunker, who said Luft "refused to accept the responsibility given him, along with all other instructors," during the drill.

The drill, which was announced in advance, was the first held at the high school this year. It merely involved clearing the student body from school buildings, the plan being for them to return to their

State May Speed Up Water Project

SACRAMENTO (AP)—The U.S. Supreme Court's decision in the Colorado River case may force California to speed up construction of its Feather River project.

Some Californians fear that the court's decision can eventually cut off the supply of Colorado River water to metropolitan Los Angeles and San Diego. When, or whether, this happens depends on completion of water projects in other states using Colorado River water.

The Metropolitan Water District of Southern California is now getting about a million acre feet of water yearly from the Colorado River—enough to maintain five million people.

The only alternate supply in sight is the Feather River Project, unless there is an unexpected breakthrough in salt water conversion.

California's voters approved a 1.75-billion-dollar bond issue to finance the Feather River Project in 1960.

Its object is to transport water 600 miles from the water-rich northern Sierra to four dry areas of the state—the San Francisco Bay region, the San Joaquin Valley, the central coastal counties, and Southern California.

The entire project is expected to produce four million acre feet of water by 1990—with 1.8 million acre feet going to Southern California.

The Feather River Project involves construction of the world's highest earth-fill dam on the Feather River at Oroville. Already under construction, it is scheduled to be completed in 1968.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown said yesterday that the state is looking into the possibility of speeding the schedule of water deliveries to Southern California in view of the Supreme Court's decision.

Asked what can be done to speed it, he said "it may necessitate spending more money in a shorter period time.

"I'll tell you one thing," Brown said. "We can be very thankful that four years ago we passed this California water project and that we're not faced today with a crash program."

Governor Makes Final Plea For Moratorium

SACRAMENTO (AP) — In the face of almost certain defeat, Gov. Edmund G. Brown made a final plea today for legislation to declare a limited, four-year moratorium on the death penalty in California.

The governor cited a U.S. Justice Department report which he said backs up his argument that capital punishment is on its way out. He urged the lawmakers to re-examine their position on the life-or-death issue.

The moratorium bill, by Assemblyman Lester A. McMillan (D-Los Angeles), narrowly passed the Assembly weeks ago. It faces a critical test before the Senate Governmental Efficiency Committee tonight.

Chairman Luther E. Gibson (D-Vallejo), who opposes the bill, has promised a full hearing. But not even the most rabid supporters predicted the measure would be reported to the Senate floor.

As a possible alternative, the committee also planned to take up a rival proposal by Sen. John W. Holmdahl (D-Oakland), to submit repeal of the death penalty to the voters. It would substitute life in prison, without parole.

Brown, who once dabbled with the idea of appearing personally on the McMillan bill, issued a statement before leaving for San Diego, where he'll greet President John F. Kennedy on his arrival tomorrow.

The governor said the trial suspension of most executions would "provide California for the first time with the means for settling the death penalty issue on the basis of meaningful experience, instead of passion and prejudice."

He said the Justice Department report showed that most states are turning away from capital punishment as an effective deterrent to crime—but that California actually is broadening its application.

There were 47 state executions throughout the country in 1962. California led all states with 11. California, together with Texas and Florida, accounted for more than half of the national total.

Brown said the federal report also substantiated his contention that the death penalty is applied disproportionately to members of minority groups. He pointed out that of the 11 prisoners to die in the gas chamber last year, six were Caucasians and five were from minority groups.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Rocky May Hit Trail In October

WASHINGTON (AP)—Associates said today that New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller has marked October on his calendar for an expected public plunge into the 1964 GOP presidential nomination contest.

Rockefeller

Rockefeller's performance at an Albany news conference yesterday strengthened the conviction of Republican leaders that the governor has every intention of fighting for the nomination.

The governor may have struck a key note in his campaign to overcome any political liability connected with his marriage to Margaretta Murphy, divorced mother of four children, when he told reporters: "One has to see life and the problems of life to understand it. Love and understanding are the two greatest forces in life."

MAMMA'S DAY AT ZOO—Henrietta, pygmy hippopotamus, takes a well-earned snooze alongside her new-born baby at the Bronx Zoo in New York City. (AP Wirephoto)

A Blessed Event For Hippo Family

NEW YORK (AP)—A blessed event for Mr. and Mrs. Hippo, quarantine for a bridegroom-to-be bongo and four unwanted agoutis—sex unknown—that's today's news of the zoo's who.

It was the third offspring for Hugo and Henrietta, pygmy hippopotamuses at the Bronx Zoo. The addition to the family weighed in at 15 pounds yesterday.

A bongo antelope from Africa arrives here by air today on his way to meet his intended in a Cleveland (Ohio) Zoo. Matchmakers may have to wait as long as two years for the romance to blossom. The bongo is only six months old. He'll have to spend a month here in quarantine.

The four agoutis go to the highest bidder at a New York City auction. They are tropical American rodents, something like hamsters. All have been declared surplus by the city department of parks.

Actor Richard Arlen Booked As Drunk

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Veteran actor Richard Arlen was booked on suspicion of drunken driving last night after officers spotted him moving slowly among the whizzing cars on the Hollywood Freeway.

Arlen, 62, was released on $276 bail and ordered to appear in municipal court tomorrow.

Two motorcycle officers said Arlen was driving between 25 and 30 miles an hour on the freeway. The speed limit is 65 m.p.h.

Missile Success

VANDENBERG AFB (AP)—An Atlas E intercontinental ballistic missile has made a 4,000-mile flight down the Pacific Missile Range to evaluate its operational system.

The Air Force called yesterday's launch successful.

Oil Drilling Bill

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Now that the federal government has authorized drilling for oil beyond the three mile limit off Northern California, the state is thinking about getting its share.

The Senate yesterday passed a bill extending authorization for drilling within the three-mile limit from San Luis Obispo County to the Oregon border, with certain exceptions.

However, the action was immediately rescinded on the motion of Sen. Fred S. Farr (D-Carmel) who will seek further debate.

Tuna Boats Fined

QUITO, Ecuador (AP) — Ecuador has convicted two San Diego tuna fishing boats of violating territorial waters and ordered them to pay a total of $26,272 in fines and registration fees.

There is no appeal from the order by Development Minister Jose Salazar. If the boats' owners don't pay up in five days, the boatst will be confiscated.

Ecuador, which claims exclusive fishing rights within 200 miles of its coast, said the two American boats were within the three-mile limit. The American fishermen insisted they were 12 miles off the coast.

Envoy, Wife Dead

COPENHAGEN, Denmark (UPI) — Denmark's cancer-stricken former ambassador to the United States was found dead today, his throat slashed, with the body of his American-born wife nearby. Police called it a "mercy killing" and suicide.

The victims were Henrik Kaufman, who served as ambassador to Washington during World War II, and his wife, the former Charlotte MacDougall of Beaufort, S.C.

Wine Market Loss

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—California is losing its share of the American market at the rate of six-tenths of 1 per cent a year to foreign wines and those of other states, Don W. McColly, Wine Institute president and general manager, says.

California's share of the national market has slipped steadily in 10 years from over 80 per cent to 75.8 per cent he told the institute's annual meeting here yesterday.

Copter Crosses Ocean

The Sikorsky CH-3B arrived at 12:50 p.m. after its 3,975-mile journey.

Only one other trans-Atlantic flight has been made by a helicopter. Two H-19S of the U.S. Air Force flew from their base in Westover, Mass., to Wiesbaden, Germany, in July, 1952.

Tourists in Japan are not expected to tip taxi drivers, maids, bellboys, waiters, doormen or barbers. Most hotels and restaurants add a 10 per cent service charge.

Eight Die In Iran Rioting

TEHRAN, Iran (UPI)—Violent anti-government rioting by Moslem religious groups opposed to political and economic reforms erupted in Iran today.

Eight persons were reported killed and at least 30 injured in clashes with police and troops.

Demonstrators set fire to several government buildings and vehicles.

The government said it had the situation under control, but machine gun fire could be heard throughout Tehran, and tanks were patrolling the streets. Machine guns were set up at key points throughout this capital and other cities.

First unofficial reports said two demonstrators were killed and 30 injured in Tehran. Another six were reported killed in rioting in the oil-rich holy city of Qum, but this report was not confirmed by the government.

The rioting broke out following the arrest of Moslem religious leader Rouhollah Khomeini. He was arrested after similar riots yesterday.

Seven rows of machine gun-equipped troops lined up in front of the palace of Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlevi, whose land reforms and political changes including giving women the right to vote are bitterly opposed by the old line, conservative religious groups and landlords.

Other troops cordoned off all major roads leading to the palace and other government buildings.

All government offices were closed and the city took on the appearance of a besieged fortress.

NO HOPE ANYONE SURVIVED CRASH

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Anxious wives, parents and other relatives had waited for some hopeful word on the fate of 101 persons aboard a military-chartered DC-7 airliner which crashed into the sea off the coast of British Columbia.

But messages yesterday from ships at the scene indicated there was no hope of survivors.

Debris and bits of bodies were picked up from the squally North Pacific and the rescue ships radioed that "evidence indicated an impact of great force."

Among those on board the four-engine propeller-driven Northwest Orient Airlines plane were 13 women, including two stewardesses, and 20 children ranging from 10 months to the late teens.

Besides a crew of six, the plane carried 58 servicemen, 22 military dependents, and 15 other civilians—employees of the Defense Department and their families.

They had gathered at McChord Air Base, Wash., from all parts of the country for Monday's flight to Anchorage, Alaska.

They included a mother and her four daughters, a Red Cross supervisor, a former school teacher recalled to duty, a soldier, his wife and daughter, a girl student, and a stewardess who probably wouldn't have been on the plane if the airline had known she was married.

List Of Pesticides Is Released In D.C.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Agriculture Department yesterday issued a list of pesticides which failed to win its approval as safe, but which still may be marketed under "protest registration."

The list was released in reply to a demand by Sen. Abraham Ribicoff, (D-Conn.), who accused the department of an "utterly indefensible" refusal to reveal it earlier.

The department said the names have "always been available," and reported the list of products "was refused to one reporter by one scientist in the department and not by the department."

Ribicoff, former secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, introduced legislation last week to remove the provision in the laws under which products may get the "protest registration" pending appeals and further tests.

Most of the objections to "protest registration" chemicals listed by the department appeared to deal with their labelling. Several failed to carry the notation "not for home use."

"Lindane pellets for use in bug death vaporizer," manufactured by B. D. Products Corp., Rialto, Calif., the department said "label failed to carry warning 'not for home use'."

"Algimycin '200," a swimming pool algaecide manufactured by the Great Lakes Biochemical Co., of Milwaukee, Wis. The department said "use of this mercury compound in swimming pools as directed on the label not considered safe."

"Algimycin '300," also a swimming pool algaecide manufactured by the Great Lakes Biochemical Co. Reason given was the same as for algimycin '200.

"Perma-Guard for treatment of alfalfa crown for seed," manufactured by Phoenix Gem, Inc., of Phoenix, Ariz. The department said, "previous registration canceled on basis of information not available earlier indicates product not effective for purpose stated on label."

"Hari-Kari neodane pellets (lindane)," made by the Neodane Co. of Torrance, Calif. The department said the "label failed to carry warning 'not for home use'."

"Lindane tablets (bug pills)," by the Vapor Chemical Co., Jackson, Mich. The department said "label failed to carry warning 'not for home use'."

State Senate Unit Studies Pay Plan

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown's proposal for pay increases totalling 30 million dollars for about half of the state's 120,000 employees was taken under submission last night by the Senate finance committee.

Comments by committee members indicated opposition to the whole amount, and possibly to any part of it.

Sens. J. Eugene McAteer (D-San Francisco), and Randolph Collier (D-Yreka), brought out that the governor's budget also includes 11 million dollars for merit pay increases—which in many cases are automatic.

The typical American family lives in the same house for six years and seven months, a national study made by a moving firm shows.

$1,000 Worth Of Furs Found By Worker

About $1,000 worth of valuable furs are yours for the asking at the sheriff's office—that is, if you can prove they are yours.

The furs, believed to be stolen, were found hidden under a rubbish pile in Kentfield at the end of Black Log Road.

Daniel Ray Stout, 19, of Point Reyes was working in the Kentfield area cleaning yards last Sunday. He told officers he stuck a fork into a pile of rubbish to load it on his truck when out popped three plastic bags, each containing furs.

A silver blue mink cape, about five years old, worth $700 to $800 when new; four blended marten neck pieces worth about $150; and a black fox furpiece, probably from a coat collar.

RULING

Last action before the ICC was four months ago when Lakusta in presenting final arguments at a Washington appeal hearing told the three commissioners that "in the view of users there is no substitute for the service enjoyed before the tunnel closure."

Only two possible further efforts by Southern Pacific were seen by the opposition today. One would be an appeal from Division 3 to the full 11-man commission which, however, grants such an appeal only when general issues important on a national scale can be seen.

The other possibility would be an appeal to the courts, which might go on for a long time but which would have to be based on some contention that there had been an error in law. No further fact-finding hearings would be held. Southern Pacific has not suggested a contention of legal error.

Examiner Linn compiled a voluminous record up to last June 8 and though Karr was careful to sprinkle it with numerous objections, none of the many attorneys involved seemed disposed to quarrel with Linn's conduct of the hearings.

Southern Pacific's estimate of the cost of restoring damage done in the fire was $852,190, comparing closely with a figure of $851,875 made on behalf of San Rafael by the consulting engineering firm of J. P. Hawke and Associates.

The railroad admitted it had collected $200,720 in insurance. Though claiming an overall loss through tunnel restoration, testimony developed that such restoration would be profitable for NWP though costing the parent S.P. to the advantage of the rival Santa Fe.

The disaster resulted from fires set the afternoon of July 20, 1962, by two Santa Venetia boys aged 12 and 13 years. Two NWP employees found and extinguished four blazes from torches of rags, papers and sticks, but a fifth roared out of control. The tunnel was not concrete but timber-lined.

During the course of combined efforts by the San Rafael and other fire departments, police, the highway patrol, public utility workers and others, a 23-year-old Alto fireman lost his life when his truck fell into a 100-foot cave-in. Two Lincoln Avenue apartment houses valued at nearly $200,000 were lost by fire and cave-in, Kent Lake water lines were cut, as were electric and gas lines. Highway 101 traffic was stopped and other roads were damaged.

Railroad and other engineers agreed that if the tunnel were to be rebuilt it should be with steel-concrete construction insuring against similar trouble in future.

Experts testifying for San Rafael said that reconstruction even at cost of $900,000 would yield NWP an annual return of 18.15 per cent.

Food Poisons 50 At West Point

Although about 25 spent the night in the base hospital, none was seriously ill, said Lt. Col. Everett O. Post, information officer.

BUDGET

income: the sale of city land. He put $650,000 in the budget for this item, not including the proposed sale of the present city hall site.

Although the proposed budget, with the expected changes, will probably look drastically different from this year's, one important factor will remain unchanged, if Andersen has his way. The property tax rate will remain at 96 cents per $100 assessed valuation.

Within that rate, however, Andersen is calling for a one-cent increase in the general fund, offset by a cut in the library tax to 11 cents.

Andersen said the proposed library operating budget would allow a two-cent tax cut, but the library board asked for the start of a fund for improvements to the ground floor of the old portion of the library.

Andersen estimated the city would collect $900,000 in sales taxes next year. He called this guess "conservative."

The present budget estimated $790,000 from sales tax, and receipts so far total $857,751.41. In the 1964-65 fiscal year, sales tax revenue can be expected to jump ever more sharply, with opening of the Emporium and other stores in the Northgate Shopping Center.

Rental revenue is expected to increase from $16,700 to $42,908, including rents to be collected from tenants on land the city expects to buy.

Another major revenue increase is expected in annexation fees.

One major capital expenditure which was shown was $422,000 for land purchases, including the rest of the city hall site and land for Bellam Boulevard and the extension of Third Street east and west.

However, land acquisition for parking was not included. Andersen says the city probably needs $900,000 for this item alone right now, but has no easy way to finance such a purchase program.

The parking meter fund and Parking District No. 1 fund, combined, total about $160,000, the city manager estimates. Another $250,000 might be raised by sale of parking district revenue bonds.

Andersen recommended the police department be given two new men and one new car. Chief Charles J. Chiesa asked for four new men and two new cars.

Two other new employees were approved for the street maintenance crew. These are the only new city employees Andersen has allowed.

There is a major increase proposed in the fire department budget, mainly because of a $19,000 item for land and $55,000 for construction of fire house No. 4. A $50,000 request for a fifth firehouse was out.

The city manager allowed $100,000 of gas tax funds for work on east Third Street, and $140,000 for west Third Street.

Del Monte Train Must Continue

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The Del Monte will continue to operate between San Francisco and Monterey despite Southern Pacific Railway's wishes to the contrary, but it must leave Monterey later each morning.

The State Public Utilities Commission ruled yesterday that S. P. could not discontinue the longtime name train.

The PUC said the railroad was losing about $25,000 a year—not $120,000, as S. P. asserted.

Bagley's Political Bill To Get Study

SACRAMENTO (AP) — An Assembly-passed bill designed to relax restrictions of political activity by public employees was sent to interim study today by the Senate governmental efficiency committee.

The measure, by Assemblyman William Bagley (R-San Rafael), would permit state, city or county employees to engage in campaigns for adoption or defeat of state ballot propositions at general elections.

Councilman Allen's Condition Is Good

City Councilman Daniel Allen of Larkspur was in good condition in Marin General Hospital today following surgery. Allen entered the a prostate operation the next day.

Though it has some oil, Syria is primarily a pastoral country. Irrigated or naturally watered land produces a variety of crops.

Novato Makes Minor Change In Budget

The Novato City Council last night made only minor changes in the preliminary 1963-64 budget of public works and park and recreation departments.

The council cut the public works engineering budget from $60,845 to $60,120, and reduced the street maintenance budget from $71,330 to $69,830.

The parks and recreation budget was cut from $28,660 to $28,460. The swimming pool budget was left at $30,770 of which $22,770 is for maintenance and $8,000 for bond redemption and interest.

City Administrator J. Julien Baget presented the council with copies of the classification and salary survey of the City of Novato made by the cooperative personnel services of the state personnel board. The council accepted it without comment.

The council adjourned to 2 p.m. Saturday to inspect the Center Road project.

POPE

depends on how long it takes the cardinals to decide on who will be the next pontiff. The new pope must be chosen by a two-thirds majority, if the number of "princes of the church" attending can be divided by three, or two-thirds plus one if their number cannot be divided by three.

Although at present there are 82 cardinals, as many as 10 of them may not be able to come to Rome because of illness or other impediments.

By canon law, the conclave has to begin within 15 to 18 days after the death of the pope.

Actually, work was under way in the magnificently frescoed Sistine Chapel even as Pope John was in the agony of his last hours. It is there that the actual balloting will take place.

The first sign to the outside world that a pope has been elected comes from a small chimney rising above the tiled roof of the chapel and the Vatican palaces.

If the smoke coming from the chimney is black, it indicates that the ballots were unsuccessful and voting must continue. If it is white, the world knows that a pontiff has been elected.

4 Teachers Are Hired In Fairfax

Four new teachers were hired and a review of the operations costs in the 1963-64 budget was completed last night at a special meeting of the Fairfax School District Board.

Operations costs in the proposed budget are expected to total $364,777, compared to $342,022 for the same items this year. The increase comes mainly for salary increases and one new teacher.

The total budget this year is $399,675, but Supt. Homer Sisk told the board he wasn't ready with a definite total figure for this year.

Sisk said the operating tax rate should stay below $2 per $100 assessed valuation, but would depend on the amount of state funds granted to the district. The present rate is $1.93, to which 23 cents for bond retirement and 16 cents in "override" taxes.

Three Novato Businesses Broken Into

Three adjoining businesses in Novato were broken into last night but the burglars did not take anything from two of them, Novato police reported.

Entered were Alves Pools of Marin at 7596 Redwood Highway, Marin Landscape Materials and Novato Lumber Co., both at Highway 101 and Atherton Avenue.

Burglars took $4.50 in cash and a wrist watch from Marin Landscaping, according to the police.

Entries were made by prying or breaking rear windows and doors.

KENNEDY

month and will extend his western tour to confer with the mayors in Hawaii on civil rights problems.

Regarding Kennedy's forthcoming visit to Italy, Press Secretary Pierre Salinger said that by mutual agreement between the two countries Kennedy's visit will follow—rather than precede — his late-June tour of West Germany and Ireland.

In his academy speech, Kennedy acknowledged that "new weapons of massive retaliation" have their greatest value because they tend to discourage potential war makers. But he said national security will not be achieved "simply by piling up bigger stocks of bombs or burying missiles under bigger piles of concrete."

He noted that "human failures and follies have too often been the rule instead of the exception" in an imperfect world.

Then he declared: "The surest way to bring on 'the war that cannot happen' is to sit back and assure ourselves that it cannot happen."

As things stand, he said, "our national security, in a period of rapid change, will depend on constant reappraisal of accepted doctrine, on alertness to new developments, on imagination and resourcefulness and new ideas."

Larkspur Hires Two For Plan

Two more persons have been hired to help prepare a Larkspur general plan, a joint meeting of the city council, planning commission and park and recreation commission was told last night.

Student planners Sheldon Bachus of San Francisco and Dobie Jenkins of Sacramento have been hired to work with consultant John Erickson. The three will meet with City Mgr. Ronald E. Piper Friday to discuss the new employees' assignments.

Erickson expressed gratification that 35 residents had volunteered to serve on five citizen committees to work on the plan.

Each committee will be headed by a planning commissioner as follows: Henry Taylor, land use; Andrew Gilardi, population; William P. Schnell, economics; Earl J. O'Grady, traffic circulation, and chairman David F. Scott, public facilities.

The planning commission will discuss naming citizens to the committees next Tuesday at 8 p.m. in city hall.

homes in case of an actual alarm.

Bunker told the board he and Luft "have had letters back and forth on the subject. He feels quite strongly on civil defense activities." The superintendent pointed out state law requires each school district to have a civil defense plan.

"It is bad for the school system if each employee can interpret the laws and orders as he sees fit," said Bunker.

Luft said he did not mean to challenge the superintendent or the board, but "my premise is this: I could not in good conscience go out with the youngsters . . . If an emergency arose, I can assure each of you that my obligation to the children would come first —above my own family."

After discussion in which board members stressed the need for drills so students would know what to do in case of real emergency, Luft said: "I understand now that it was an error of judgment on my part." He said he would take part in future drills.

British War Minister Quits

LONDON (UPI) — British War Minister John Profumo resigned today with an admission of "improprieties" with a beautiful model.

Admitting that his earlier denials of "improprieties" with the London playgirl were untrue, Profumo also resigned as a conservative member of Parliament.

"I have come to realize that, by this deception, I have been guilty of a grave misdemeanor," the war minister said in his letter of resignation to Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.

SCHOOLS

used, and will have a possible $150,000 within 90 days from Public Law 815, a new federal school aid law to communities with federal facilities such as Hamilton Air Force School.

"This study was done at the request of the board," said Corona. "It is merely a reflection of a request from the citizen committee for us to anticipate future enrollment in the schools.

"A special law allows us to levy a five cent additional tax during the next two years for repair and earthquake proofing. This would be a legitimate way to raise money for repairs at San Rafael High School," he added.

"I'm scared about even thinking of another bond election," said Lothar Salin, vice chairman of the citizen committee. "The main building at San Rafael High School is a dump. It needs work. But I would feel pessimistic about building with anything except the money on the books."

"The kids are coming whether we want them or not," replied Walter J. Doll, board member. "There's no other choice but to get the money.

"Three thousand is far too big for a high school," he added, referring to Terra Linda. "I'll be obliged to vote against it.

"But we're spending money foolishly," protested Carl J. Brown, also a new board member.

"Well, we have to take the lumps for the mistakes we make," said Doll.

"Speaking for myself," said board president C. Paul Bettini, "the citizen committee is not going to have a chance to review this. I'm personally satisfied we have a sound program. It's a question of what we want to do first.

"The citizens know nothing. They get someone with an ax to grind."

"You mean that just because you were elected means you're better qualified than we?" asked Wesley A. Gudmundson, citizen committee chairman.

"What right do you have to make a comment about us in the newspaper if you weren't even at the meeting?" retorted Bettini, who also did not attend last week's board meeting. "I realize the paper wants to sell copies, but it's bad for education. You don't believe what you read in the newspaper, do you?"

"I was quoted accurately," cut in Salin. He and other committee members criticized the two-million-dollar program after learning about it in the Independent-Journal.

The board then voted to refer the study to the committee on a motion by Doll, who said, "This should not be considered our attempt to get back in the committee's good graces. I'm looking for help."

"I don't think we came here with ruffled feathers," said Gudmundson with dignity.

Party Primaries Measure Gains

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Assembly Democrats today agreed to modify a bill that would have permitted county central committees to pick candidates for special congressional and legislative elections.

The lower house caucus decided to support amendments calling for party primaries to choose the candidates.

Under present law, anybody can run in a special election to fill a vacant congressional or legislative seat. These elections are non-partisan.

Mill Valley Library Site Is On Agenda

A policy regarding continuation of the Mill Valley library site condemnation suit will be discussed by the Mill Valley City Council at its meeting at 8 p.m. today.

Also on the agenda is approval of the summer recreation program budget, a subcommittee report on conflict of interest policy, and the proposed increase of license limits and other fees.

Pleads Guilty In Decency Case

Robert Delos Butts, 25, a San Anselmo used car salesman who was accused of making advances toward a 7-year-old boy last March, pleaded guilty today to outraging public decency.

Judge Leonard A. Thomas of Marin Municipal Court set 3 p.m. June 27 as the time for sentencing.

Fairfax police arrested Butts on March 15. They said Butts was suspected of molesting the boy in a Fairfax apartment while the boy's parents were away.

'Town Hall' Meeting Called In Lagunitas

A special "town hall" type meeting has been called by the Lagunitas School District Board for June 25 to discuss the tax election to be held July 2.

The board last night agreed to send notices to voters of the district to attend the meeting, which will replace the regular school board meeting which had been scheduled for June 18.

OBITUARIES

Ex-Rancher Genazzi Dies At 81

Funeral services for Fred J. Genazzi, longtime dairy rancher on Point Reyes, will be held at 11 a.m. Friday at the Sorensen Funeral Home at 400 Washington Street, Petaluma.

Genazzi, 81, died yesterday in a local hospital after long illness.

A native of Maggia, Switzerland, he immigrated to the United States alone at the age of 14. Until 27, he worked on dairies in the Salmon Creek area of Point Reyes, then moved to Penngrove to operate his own dairy. He owned a bar and grocery store for five years in Petaluma, then, in 1919, returned to Point Reyes to operate his own dairy until he retired 10 years ago.

Genazzi was past president and a director for 24 years of the Point Reyes Dairymen's Assn. He was a member of the Sonoma-Marin Dairymen's Assn., the Associated Farmers, and Fraternal Order of Eagles Aerie 333.

He leaves two daughters, Mrs. Silvie Cadoni and Mrs. Evelyn Gilardi, and a son, Harold Genazzi, all of Point Reyes Station, and a sister, Mrs. Maria Eascher of Switzerland. He is also survived by eight grandchildren.

Inurnment will be at Cypress Hill Memorial Park, Petaluma.

MRS. STIRLING

Mrs. Margaret E. Stirling, 79, a native of Scotland and a Marin County resident for 46 years, died today at a local hospital after an illness of five weeks.

She lived at 24 Bayview Street, San Rafael, with her husband, John Stirling.

She is survived by two sons, John Stirling Jr. and James M. Stirling, San Rafael; three sisters, Betsy S. Robertson, San Rafael; Mary Tompson, Ardroath, Scotland, and Isabella Glass, Perth, Australia, and six grandchildren.

She was a member and past district deputy of Golden Star Rebekah Lodge 112, a member of the Auxiliary 39 to Patriarchs Militant, IOOF, and Sequoia Court 79, Order of Amarath.

Funeral services are scheduled for 11 a.m. Friday at the Harry M. Williams Mortuary, San Rafael. Burial will be in Mount Tamalpais Cemetery.

The Rebekah Lodge will hold a memorial service at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the mortuary.

CECIL HILL

Cecil J. Hill, 67, who moved to Novato only 12 days ago, died yesterday at a local hospital after a short illness.

Hill was a retired janitor, having last worked in San Francisco. He moved to Novato 12 days ago to reside at 55 Ignacio Lane.

Hill was born in South Africa and had never married. He served in the merchant marine during World War II.

Hill is survived by his brother, Ronald Hill of South Africa.

Funeral will be held tomorrow at 2 p.m. at Mount Tamalpais Cemetery, San Rafael. Friends may call at Russell and Gooch Mortuary, Mill Valley, until noon tomorrow.

MARY FERRARIO

Mary J. Ferrario, 42, a lifelong resident of Mill Valley, died yesterday at a local hospital after a long illness.

Miss Ferrario had worked almost 19 years for Standard Oil Co. in San Francisco, where she was lead comptometer operator in the payroll department. She resided with her father, Louis J. Ferrario, at 102 East Blithedale Avenue.

Requiem Mass will be said at 9 a.m. Friday at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church, Mill Valley. The Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. tomorrow at Russell and Gooch Mortuary, Mill Valley. Burial will be in Mount Olivet Cemetery, San Rafael.

Miss Ferrario is survived by her father; two sisters, Mrs. Linda Bannister of Nashville, Tenn., and Mrs. Francis Bacchetti of Tracy, and a brother, Louis C. Ferrario of Mill Valley.

MRS. BLOCH

Marguerite Schneider Bloch, former Mill Valley resident and mother of artist Lucienne Bloch Dimitroff of Mill Valley, died today at a hospital in Portland, Ore., after a short illness. She was 83.

Mrs. Bloch, widow of composer Ernest Bloch, was a pianist as a young girl. She was born in Hamburg, Germany, and, with her husband, lived in Mill Valley from 1925 to 1930. She had resided at Agate Beach, Ore., for the past 20 years.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Dimitroff and Suzanne Bloch of New York City, and a son, Ivan, of Portland. Funeral will be held in Portland.

County Pay Raises To Be Asked

A fat booklet embodying county salary recommendations for the 1963-64 fiscal year, with increases totaling $81,888 of which only $59,115 would come from county property tax, was given Marin County supervisors yesterday for "home work" preparatory to all-day consideration next Monday.

Robert D. Elliott signed the work as assistant personnel director and included no mention of his own pay. But administrator Alan Bruce sent a supplementary letter recommending that Elliott receive a two-range increase—meaning a 10 per cent raise over what he has been receiving.

This would put Elliott's monthly pay at a first step level of $760 as compared with the $694 he now receives. No action was taken by the board.

Elliott accompanied his salary recommendations by commenting that the county should decide on what constitutes management, executive, and technical positions, as well as supervisory in grades, also what constitutes a major department, division or unit.

He laid down four proposals designed to bring county policies in line with the more enlightened practices in modern business.

Elliott felt there should be better reward for individual growth and improvement as well as refusal to give reward when there has been no progress. He said routine annual step increases of $50 monthly for management jobs in the $10,000 class would be considered unrealistic in private industry.

JFK Bids Faster Integration Move

WASHINGTON (AP) — President John F. Kennedy has urged 100 business leaders to move faster in breaking down racial barriers in Southern stores, restaurants and theaters.

The businessmen were described in general as ready to "go home and start" desegregating their firms — many of them chains with branches throughout the South.

But a few of the businessmen who sat down with Kennedy at the White House yesterday counseled him to go slow on legislation that would compel integration of businesses dealing in goods that move in interstate commerce.

The president, expected to ask Congress next week for just such a measure, was advised by two or three of the executives to give voluntary programs a little more time before resorting to compulsion.

But administration leaders, fearful new Negro demonstrations could erupt into a race riot, stress that the mood of the times is urgent.

Secretary of Labor Willard W. Wirts, spoke of the need for urgent action as he shook a stick at labor unions who refuse to admit Negroes.

He pledged that he would, under orders of the president, use the full federal authority in cracking down on discrimination within unions.

If there is not some real progress soon, Negro leaders held out the possibility of mass protest demonstrations in the nation's capital similar to those which led to violence recently in Philadelphia.

At the closed White House meeting were business leaders from 25 states and the District of Columbia — most of them executives of chain stores, theaters, motels, and restaurants operating in the South.

With the president were Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson and Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy.

Many of the businessmen had attended another recent session at which the attorney general urged voluntary integration of public accommodations.

Milton Elsberg, president of Drug Fair Stores, Alexandria, Va., said most of the businessmen who commented on Kennedy's appeal voiced the general view that they would get started in the next few days at integrating their firms.

Repeatedly, according to the participants, the suggestion was made that business integrate without fanfare to avoid arousing strong local opposition.

One Virginia executive said Southern businessmen are "between the devil and the deep blue sea." Asked if the president understood this, he replied, "Yes, he does."

The government whipped out figures indicating that racial troubles mean trouble for business. The Federal Reserve Board said that retail sales in Birmingham, Ala., dropped sharply in May—a time of demonstrations and racial strife.

For the week which ended May 25, retail sales were off 11 per cent compared to the corresponding week in 1962. For the preceding three weeks the figures were also on the minus side: 17, 19 and 14 per cent. Almost every other metropolitan area in the Atlanta Federal Reserve District reported increased retail sales for the four weeks.

On Capitol Hill both sides were rallying their forces for a possible showdown on civil rights legislation — and the House got an advance look at the battle that may be in store for it.

Sen. Jacob K. Javits (R-N.Y.) urged Senate Republicans to "go down the line for civil rights legislation."

In advance of a conference of GOP senators, he said he hopes a majority of them will agree the time has come for Congress to act toward guaranteeing the rights of Negroes and other minority groups.

An equivalent of 4.5 million jobs int he United States depend on foreign trade, Paul Hoffman, managing director of the U.N. Special Fund, disclosed in a recent speech at Boston University.

LARKSPUR ROSE BOWL STAR—Freddy Morgan, formerly featured banjo player for 20 years with the Spike Jones orchestra, will entertain at this Saturday night's dance given by the Larkspur Volunteer Firemen. About 800 attended last Saturday's opening of the 54th summer of the dances.

She Is Rapped For Milk Bath

PETERBOROUGH, ENGLAND (UPI)—Shapely Ann Doherty, 18, Raised the ire of Mayor Carl Hall because she took a milk bath.

Miss Doherty dunked after being judged "the girl who would look most beautiful in a bath of milk."

"I consider it rather disgraceful to waste 40 gallons of good milk when there are starving millions all over the world," the mayor said. He gave the milk to a local home for cats.

To Train Overseas

West Point Cadet William C. Bradley Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Bradley of 38 Ridge Road, San Anselmo, will attend a training course in Germany this summer with 200 other cadets. Young Bradley just completed his second year at West Point.

There are now more than 300,000 law enforcement officers in the nation's federal, state and local agencies.

TOY 'FLUBBER' OUT OF BUSINESS NOW

Bad publicity has put the once popular toy "Flubber" out of business.

Marin toy stores, which once did a brisk business in the synthetic rubber molding toy, now keep what they have left in the basement and sell it only at the request of parents.

Flubber was blamed with causing mild skin rashes on some 1,600 children by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration, which ordered the toy off the shelves of stores throughout the country about two months ago.

"Since then the toy has been given a clean bill of health," said Eldred Harbert, owner of the Toy World in Corte Madera, "but it's had bad publicity and it's still off our counters."

"I doubt if our supply will run out," said Walter Zurcher, owner of the San Rafael Toy Shop. Zurcher said the manufacturing firm, Rassenfeld Brothers of Central Falls, N.Y., has discontinued manufacturing Flubber. "The sales slowed down greatly because of adverse publicity," he said. "I never did like it. It's about 10 cents worth of merchandise nicely packaged." Flubber sold for a dollar.

"We don't have it," said Mrs. Ernest Crull, co-owner of the Toy Circus in San Anselmo.

Mrs. Ethel Wernstrum, cashier at F. W. Woolworth Co. in San Rafael, said the store's Flubber "is downstairs. We sell it only at the request of the parents."

At the F. W. Woolworth Co. in Corte Madera, bookkeeper Kim Crane reported, "It's been a good while since we've had it."

Drake Class Leaves Bench

The Sir Francis Drake High School 1963 graduating class will leave as its gift to the school a new senior bench, announced Lawrence M. Scott Jr., senior class president.

The money for the bench, more than $150, will come from the profits of magazine and candy sales sponsored by the class.

The bench is eight-sided, enabling it to be placed around a tree.

San Quentin Prisoners To Learn Reading Through Use Of Colors

San Quentin prisoners who don't know how to read may begin to learn next fall under a new technique which never has been previously used for large numbers of adults.

A pioneer program called "reading through color," was explained this week to the San Quentin academic advisory committee, which assists the county schools office in selection of education programs for the prison school.

Charles Rhinehart, Sonoma State college teacher, described a scheme he and Stanford University professors have developed, in which 38 colors are used to represent the vowel sounds in the English language.

"I am not saying this method of teaching reading to illiterates is the best method," Rhinehart said "but I would like to have a chance to see what can be done with it for a group of adults. The thing I want most to do is to enable people to read, and this way has worked with children."

At suggestion of County Schools Supt. Virgil S. Hollis, the committee agreed to hire Rhinehart next fall to teach a group of illiterate prisoners. Rhinehart said he may be able to finance the program through "some foundation grant."

Using the color teaching system, the non-reader quickly identifies a sound with a color, Rhinehart said, and confusion of several sounds for the same alphabet letter is avoided.

He admitted the system is a total failure for anybody who is color blind.

San Quentin School Principal George Renworth said about 900 of the 4,500 prisoners at San Quentin are below fifth-grade ability in reading. About a fourth of these are learning to read now through conventional methods.

Woman's Wrist Hurt In Two-Car Crash

Melinda Karuse, 22, of 37 Lakeside Drive, Corte Madera, suffered a broken wrist in collision of her Volkswagen and a new Ford in Corte Madera about 8:30 p.m. Monday. She was treated at Marin General Hospital.

Policeman Fred J. Talmadge said the cars crashed in the intersection of Madera Boulevard and Monona Drive. Second driver was Glen Rose, 37, of Gardena.

In 1516 Salim the Grim conquered Syria for the Ottoman Turks, who ruled until 1918, when British and Arabs occupied the country.

Two Library Officials To Study Co-op Plan

Mrs. Vivian Smith, head librarian, and Mrs. Eleanor G. Murray, president of the San Rafael Library Board, will go to Santa Rosa tomorrow to study the idea of joining the North Bay Cooperative Library System.

The board on Monday authorized the trip for an investigation of the organization and operation of the system, whereby libraries in several counties exchange books and maintain centralized collections.

WANTED BY FBI — Leroy Ambrosia Frazier, 43, has been added to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's list of 10 most wanted fugitives. Frazier escaped in January from St. Elizabeth's Hospital in Washington, D.C. He is called "extremely dangerous and mentally unbalanced" by the FBI and has been convicted of assault with a dangerous weapon and possession of narcotics. He may have dyed carrot red hair. He has worked as a cement finisher.

Marin City Housing Time Table Is Announced

Marin City's remaining 20-year-old "temporary war housing" must be demolished by next March 1, redeveloper James H. Scheuer said today in a letter to the Marin County Redevelopment Agency.

Scheuer's deadline was in response to the agency's request for a time table for completion of Marin City redevelopment.

Redevelopment Unit 2 planned by Scheuer are—13 Braun Court relocation houses, to start when the agency approves price increase or alternate method of financing cost of soil stabilization and slope control work; completion in four-six months.

56 Unit 4 relocation apartments, to start in late summer, completion in nine months.

36 Unit 4 relocation houses, to start by summer's end, no completion date set.

358 non-relocation apartments and row houses, to start by the end of 1963, to be built in phases with each phase taking six to nine months, similarly, the first of two three story elevator apartment buildings containing 126 units should start in early 1964, the second in 12 months when the first is completed.

60,000 square foot shopping center, to be started before spring provided rest of program is moving as scheduled.

In all cases the time table depends upon final plan and price approval from the agency.

Scheuer declared the agency must begin relocating families in temporary housing who either are not eligible relocatees, cannot afford relocation houses or apartments, or choose not to buy relocation housing in Marin City.

He said he is working "intensively" to solve the problem of getting an over-all statement of feasibility on the entire non-relocation housing portion of the project from Federal Housing Administration. (FHA has announced it may be over-extended in Marin and therefore plans a cutback in rebuilding in Marin City.)

"Every portion of this scheduled completion of Marin City as outlined by Scheuer is dependent completely on the approval of FHA financing," said Bert Klahn, Marin Housing Authority executive director.

"It has been indicated to the agency by FHA that this number of units should not be under construction until the market in Marin County expands. It is our strong feeling that this entire community with an identity of its own should be completed in conformance with the schedule and not be dragged out for years."

Vallecito Graduation Set June 13

The fourth graduation exercises of the Vallecito School in the Dixie School District will be held June 13 at 7:30 p.m. in the Terra Linda High School amphitheater.

A total 234 eighth grade students will be graduated, the largest class in the school's history. "We have about 30 more this year than last," said principal Henry M. Smith.

Two honor students will speak at the ceremony. "'Nickers, Nyons and Nuclear Physics" is the title of a speech by honor student Ellen Greenberg. Laura Baillie will talk about "The Unbroken Chain."

Supt. Dennie B. Willis will present the class to the school trustees. Board president John Starkweather and trustee Lawrence I. Kramer will pass out diplomas.

Other honor students who will take part in the ceremony are Kathy Hotchkiss, master of ceremonies, and Courtney Smith, who will present the class gift.

Beauty Shop Plan Approved

County supervisors yesterday reversed a planning commission denial of adjustment to allow Mary B. Brookover of Los Ranchitos to establish a beauty shop in her home.

Many such efforts have been made but few have succeeded, noted Supervisor Peter Behr.

"This is the first time I've found everybody for it," said Supervisor William D. Fusselman.

Mrs. Brookover had support for her home project at 7 Van Buren Street, adjacent to North San Pedro Road, from the Los Ranchitos Improvement Assn. and 42 petition signers.

The supervisors' approval was unanimous.

Nuclear Test Site Workers Due Layoff

NEVADA TEST SITE (UPI) — About 1,500 civilian workers at this sprawling nuclear proving ground today faced the possibility of being laid off within the next six weeks.

The Atomic Energy Commission announced plans yesterday to reduce the work force by that amount. Most of the layoffs will be in contractors' work forces. No government workers will be affected.

Gallinas Creek Dredging Studied

A three-week work assignment to check up on proposed dredging of a channel from Gallinas Creek to the Civic Center was handed by county supervisors yesterday to public works director Donald R. Frost as result of a letter from George C. Corbett, president of Northbridge Marinites.

Corbett recalled supervisors last January authorized circulation of petitions for creation of a special assessment district for the channel dredging contract, but said affected residents of Mark Twain Avenue want preliminary information from the county.

Not only would the channel permit a navigable entrance to the Civic Center and adjacent fairgrounds and enhance natural beauty, said Corbett, but dredgings from the channel could be used for fill in the vicinity.

"It's O.K. about our sharing expenses and getting fill," commented Frost, "but it is a question whether we should share later maintenance."

Other issues will require considerable study, said Frost.

Among the questions are whether engineers can give assurance that the channel won't create water problems during high tides and storms, whether water rights will be automatic for owners of homes west of the culvert, and the issue of granting building permits for piers and launching ramps.

Northbridge residents also want to hear about any county plans for use of county property adjacent to their community and on the other side of the proposed channel, Corbett wrote.

"We can't decide today for this is complicated," said Supervisor Peter Behr.

Incorporation Is Panel Topic

The proposed incorporation of Tiburon will be discussed on radio KTIM's "Marin Sounding Board" program tomorrow from 9 to 10 a.m.

Panelists will be Mrs. Elva Paske, chairman of the Tiburon Committee for Incorporation; James Trimble, of 4077 Paradise Drive; Mrs. Rod Crandall, former secretary of the Paradise Property Owners Assn., and a fourth member not yet selected.

Moderator Kitty Oppenheimer said telephoned questions are invited. The program will be repeated Sunday at 12:30 p.m. by tape recording.

Hub Council Is Meeting On Budget

San Anselmo City Councilmen will meet at 8 o'clock tonight in the city hall to wind up budget discussions if possible.

The estimated budget for 1963-64 is $697,000, which calls for a tax rate of $1.89 per $100 assessed valuation. That would mean an increase of one and one-half cents over this year's rate of $1,875.

Last night, city fathers discussed the proposed budgets for the police and the fire departments. City Administrator Douglas J. Flautt presented a preliminary police budget of $165,841 and a fire department budget of $178,665 for the coming fiscal year.

Last night's discussion brought no drastic changes in the proposed budget, finance officer Alfred C. Kaeppel reported.

Laborer Is Killed As Building Settles

KODIAK, Alaska (UPI) — Arthur Whitman, 54, who arrived here this week from Alameda, to work as a construction laborer, was killed yesterday when he was pinned beneath a newly-moved building.

Police said Whitman was helping to set the building over a new foundation when it suddenly settled, pinning him beneath it.

Supervisors Told How Sonoma Losing Rentals

Sonoma County charges rental on rooms used for public meetings in county buildings, but loses money on them anyway, Asst. County Administrator John F. Barrows reported to Marin County supervisors yesterday.

Barrows prepared his report in attempt to bring some light to discussion of whether charges should be made for such use of rooms in the Civic Center.

The problem in Sonoma, Barrows indicated, is that non-veteran groups pay for use of seven Veterans Memorial buildings but that veterans' groups and government agencies are allowed rent-free use.

Result, said Barrows, is that total revenue does not meet the cost of maintenance and operation. Also many groups create complications by seeking exempt status. If everybody paid in full, costs would be met, he said.

"All the buildings receive heavy usage with each building having at least one meeting every evening," said the report, mentioning that about half the meetings are by exempt-status groups.

Charges for rooms of various sizes from auditorium down to the smallest meeting places were listed as ranging from $25, for capacity of 300, to a low of $2 for one room accommodating only 10.

Barrows recalled that costs at the Civic Center had been estimated at $16.35 for the combined supervisors-planners chamber, $6.52 for one side only, and $2.26 for a conference room.

Due to desire for action by a full board, the subject was once more continued although yesterday was supposed to have been the end of an interim no-charge period.

Pleads Innocent To Robbery

Thomas Kapanna Sovalik, 28, unemployed, who lives at the Lincoln Hotel in San Rafael, pleaded innocent yesterday to a charge of strong-arm robbery.

Judge Harold J. Haley set 3:30 p.m. next Monday as the time for a preliminary hearing for Sovalik. He is in Marin County Jail in lieu of $2,100 bail.

Johnny James O'Daniel, 46, a carpenter living at the same hotel, complained to police that Sovalik entered his room Saturday night, beat him, and stole about $50 from him. O'Daniel was treated at San Rafael General Hospital for face injuries.

Alabama Governor Barred From Doorway Stand Against Negroes

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) —A federal judge today barred defiant Gov. George C. Wallace from his avowed doorway stand against enrollment of Negroes at the University of Alabama.

The injunction by U. S. Dist. Judge Seybourn H. Lynne prohibits Wallace or anyone in concert with him from physically interfering with court ordered desegregation of the state institution.

The order does not ban Wallace from the campus.

In clear language, the Alabama-born jurist spelled out federal supremacy and swept away any vestige of validity in the state sovereignty power claimed by Wallace.

"The governor of a sovereign state has no authority to obstruct or prevent the execution of the lawful orders of a court of the United States," Lynne wrote in an opinion which ended in a moving appeal to Alabama's people.

The 56-year-old jurist took a dramatic departure from the stiff formality of court procedure to express a prayer that all Alabamians "will join in the resolution that law and order will be maintained."

With an air of pathos and concern, Lynne wrote: "I love the people of Alabama.

"I know that many of both races are troubled and, like Jonah of old, are 'angry even unto death' as the result of distortions of affairs within this state, practiced in the name of sensationalism."

Lynne did not elaborate.

The judge said it was clear that unless an injunction was issued, irreparable injury would result "from obstruction to the lawful orders of this court and the consequent impairment of the judicial process of the United States."

Civil Rights Measure Moves

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A major civil rights bill—considered a backstop to the Brown administration's housing measure—has been shunted to a third Senate committee.

The Senate Finance Committee unexpectedly sent the bill by Sen. George Miller Jr. (D-Martinez), to the governmental Efficiency Committee late yesterday.

The bill had already been approved by the Business and Professions Committee and was before Finance only for consideration of its cost.

16-Year-Old Boy Admits Slaying Mother Of Six

SAN JOSE (AP)—Police said today they have arrested a 16-year-old boy, and he admitted yesterday's brutal slaying of Mrs. Mary Ellen Stackhouse, 30-year-old mother of six.

Police said the boy lived near the victim in East San Jose.

They withheld his name and gave no details of his confession.

Mrs. Stackhouse, the wife of a Moffett Field Navy chief petty officer, was found dead, her face battered and her throat cut. A knife and a hammer lay beside the corpse.

DAILY Independent-Journal Est. 1861
SERVING ALL OF MARIN COUNTY

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

Feeding People Is Most Important Job Of The UN

Here in Marin County where the average family income per year is $10,078, according to the latest figures, it is hard to think of someone not having enough to eat.

Yet this week in Washington, a United Nations expert reported to diplomats gathered at the World Food Congress that 400 MILLION persons in this world go to bed hungry EVERY night.

Not only that, but the number is increasing.

The UN's Food and Agricultural Arganization (FAO) estimates that one billion persons, a third of the world's population, suffers from malnutrition. Yet we pay our farmers not to grow crops.

Most of those suffering are in the Far East, with the food problem of the Asian region, including India and Pakistan, described as "precarious." In this region the estimate is that four times as much food as they now have must be made available in the next few years.

And to further complicate the problem, the population increase is fastest in the Far East where the food problem is worst.

Yet, as the FAO is telling the 1,000 diplomats, the answer is not for the United States and other wealthy nations to produce excess food and ship it into the stricken areas. At best, this can be only a temporary aid, buying time for a permanent solution.

That solution must come through the hungry people themselves. They, through their governments, need to mobilize their own resources, take advantage of their own production and, with the help of others, improve their methods.

That's a lot to ask of hungry people. No one nation can ask it of others. It must be a joint effort.

That's why the World Food Congress, which is a part of the FAO-organized Freedom From Hunger campaign, is meeting this week and next. That five-year campaign is reaching its midpoint. Reports going to the diplomats say food production can be substantially increased soon. They will carry back to their own countries ways it can be done, and word that other nations will help.

Most people think of the United Nations primarily as a political machine to keep us out of war.

The UN can do its greatest work in the economics field, in showing how underprivileged people can reach a better way of life through their own efforts with the aid of the rest of the world.

If the UN can do that, the threat of atomic war diminishes faster than through a disarmament agreement. Hungry people don't care about atomic war—what have they got to lose?

The fight to feed the people of the world is a battle we can't afford to lose.

Death, Taxes And Morning Fog

High fog on a summer morning in Marin is about as inevitable as death and taxes. It is a part of our season, like it or not.

It is one of the reasons the Bay Area is so cool most of the summer. The other reason is the afternoon sea breeze blowing over Pacific currents direct from Alaska.

Chamber of Commerce propaganda calls this "natural air-conditioning." If so, we sometimes are tempted to wish Nature would turn her thermostat a bit higher.

But it usually takes only a day in the sweltering heat of the Central Valley to make us appreciate Marin's summer clime. Those of us who have suffered through hot summer nights in the Mid West and East know what a blessing the cool nights are.

Even though we mutter a bit now and then, we think Marin has a wonderful climate. High morning fog, you are welcome.

THE LIGHTER SIDE

One Way To Get Into Show Biz Is To Back The Right Candidate

By DICK WEST

WASHINGTON (UPI) — People with talent are always asking how they can break into show business. It's really quite simple.

If you are a girl, you can marry a producer. If you are rich, you can buy yourself a theater. Or you can join the New Frontier and become deputy assistant to the secretary of the Treasury.

The third method was the one used by Richard E. McCormack, who recently resigned from the Treasury Department to make his debut as a nightclub singer.

I wouldn't recommend his system for everyone, however. You might make a mistake and wind up as a Cabinet member instead.

Although he had taken piano lessons and done a little vocalizing with school orchestras, McCormack didn't really get started on the road to a show business career until he was a student at Stonehill College in Massachusetts.

That was when he became active in President Kennedy's first campaign for the Senate.

A baritone can't make it from campaigns to cabarets in one easy leap, however. McCormack's next step up the ladder was to join the staff of Sen. Vance Hartke (D-Ind.) as a legislative assistant.

Being associated with a senator is good training for show business, but McCormack still needed more polish. So, during the 1960 presidential race, he joined the Kennedy campaign as traveling "advance man."

His work in that capacity led to his next assignment as director of transportation for the inauguration ceremonies. This was the break he had been waiting for.

AN ENGINEER for a record company heard McCormack sing at an informal social gathering and suggested that he start crooning professionally. But McCormack hesitated for eight reasons, all children.

Only after he had joined the Treasury Department and had a couple of television appearances to his credit did he feel secure enough to burn his bureaucratic bridges.

As deputy assistant to the secretary, he helped handle congressional relations. One of his congressional relations was Speaker John McCormack (D-Mass.), a distant cousin.

McCORMACK NOW is performing nightly at a local supper club. He also has a record album coming out soon, so it appears that this phase of his career is well launched.

I do, however, want to offer a word of caution to anyone who might want to follow the McCormack example of getting into show biz via politics.

Why Spray For Mosquitoes

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Will someone please explain why, when an issue such as fluoridation of water has to be voted upon, the Mosquito Abatement District can blanket a neighborhood with insecticides (such as was done here this morning at 6 a.m.) with no choice for or against by the people so blanketed with spray.

Those against such area spraying may be few, but surely we have some say as to what is done to our homes and gardens.

Innuendoes Harm Nursery School

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

While the facts reported were essentially correct, there were certain innuendoes in your May 15 report of the previous night's San Rafael Board of Education meeting that put co-operative nursery schools as a whole in a most unfavorable position.

The members of Terra Linda Co-operative Nursery School, whose request for the board's approval of a director for a second session of the school prompted the article, particularly object to these questionable undertones.

Placing quotation marks around both "adult education" and "child development" when referring to the nursery school program tends to infer by innuendo that these are erroneous labels and do not depict the true nature of the program. In short, these innuendoes cast a most unfortunate, questionable light on the entire co-operative nursery school picture.

Parent-participation (cooperative) nursery schools serve a distinct and important function in the community by providing the advantages of a good nursery school program at a tuition the average family can afford to pay. The nominal tuition rate is possible due to two vital factors:

1. Parents (not employees) staff the school (under the guidance of the director) as well as work for the school's financial success through various forms of fund raising.

2. The local school district (usually the adult education department because of the school's evening parent education classes) underwrites the cost of the major portion of the director's salary. All other expenses of the school (rent, supplies, etc.) are paid by the parents.

To meet the ever-increasing demand for nursery school education, the Terra Linda Co-operative Nursery School is endeavoring to establish an afternoon session in addition to our present morning session in order to accommodate many of the families who wish to share with us in this tremendous parent/child learning experience.

We feel that our sincere endeavor in this regard was not accurately conveyed to the public in the aforementioned article of May 15 . . .

Dictionaries Don't Alter Realities

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

State School Superintendent Rafferty should realize that dictionary words do not alter the sexual reality.

No girl was ever ruined by a book.

Titillation is real. It exists in the absence of words. Words, on the other hand, are somewhat unreal.

Before Dr. Rafferty does surgery to the American vocabulary, let me smuggle to your readers the following words: iricism, razee, fisc, cos, proa, trifurcate, facient, diglot, segno, and remex.

Are eager schoolboys, at this very instant, racing to their dictionaries?

If so, Dr. Rafferty has helped education only indirectly. He has caused a temporary interest in dictionaries.

THE ALLEN-SCOTT REPORT

Lodge May Be Named Ambassador To Italy

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON—President Kennedy is closely checking up on the large corp of ambassadors he has appointed to determine where it can be "strengthened" in preparation for the stormy 1964 election battle.

Graphically illustrative of the kind of important changes he is considering is naming Henry Cabot Lodge, 1960 Republican vice presidential candidate and former ambassador to the United Nations, as ambassador to Italy.

Giving Lodge this prestige diplomatic post was suggested by Christian Herter, Secretary of State in the Eisenhower cabinet and now the Kennedy administration's special trade representative. His proposal was instantly and enthusiastically supported by the inner White House group as a major political "coup" to bolster the administration's sagging bipartisan foreign policy.

THE PRESIDENT is sounding out influential Democratic congressional leaders, particularly in the Senate, where Lodge's appointment would have to be confirmed, on how they feel about it. The Rome post beecomes vacant in the fall when Ambassador G. Frederick Reinhardt will be shifted to another country.

Another diplomatic switch under consideration would send Ambassador William Attwood, who once praised Castro as a great leader, from Guinea to Indonesia, now one of the most important diplomatic assignments in the Far East. Also, Ambassador David Bruce is due to return from London early in 1964 to take over a top job in the State Department.

A TOP OFFICIAL of the Immigration Service has good news for Cuban refugees taking part in anti-Castro raids.

While it is still official policy to prohibit these raids, refugees caught taking part in them will not be deported.

That's the reassuring word Mario T. Noto, associate immigration commissioner, has given the House Immigration subcommittee which is investigating reports that refugee raiders had been threatened with deportation.

Noto was closely questioned on this by Rep. Michael A. Feighan (D-Ohio), acting chairman.

"Are anti-Castro activities, including raids on Cuba, by refugees now in this country grounds for their deportation?" he demanded.

"No," replied Noto. "The activities you describe would not be grounds for deportation. That's our policy."

"I am glad to hear it," said Feighan. "Deportation of these refugees to Cuba would be tantamount to a death sentence. Is there any truth to reports that Dr. Mario Cardona, former leader of the Cuban Revolutionary Council, was threatened with deportation?"

"I am not qualified to answer that question," replied Noto.

LATER, ATTORNEY Gen. Robert Kennedy sent a memorandum to Feighan flatly denying that anyone in the Justice Department had threatened Cardona with deportation.

After reading this statement, Feighan shot back another inquiry to the attorney general on whether anyone in the Kennedy administration had made such a threat. The latest word Feighan has from the Justice Department was that his sharp letter had been forwarded to the State Department for reply.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

A woman who weighs something over 300 pounds had an interesting experience while flying by jet from Denver to New York recently. Shortly after the tak-off a stewardess tapped her on the shoulder and invited her to move from the tourist section to a seat in the first-class compartment. "I'm flattered," said the woman, "but wondere why you've singled me out for this V.I.P. treatment." "Madam," explained the stewardess candidly, "we have a weight problem."

Joe McCarthy tells of two robbers who made a gigantic haul in a bank stick-up. Looking at the huge pile of greenbacks on a table in their hideaway, one robber suggested, "Instead of counting all this money, let's wait till morning and look at the newspapers to see how much we got!"

Another Joe McCarthy story: A family group, having dinner at a Broadway resaurant, reached the dessert course. The 10-year-old daughter said to the waiter, "What kind of pastry do you have?" Then, before he could answer, she added, "And, by the way, what IS pastry?"

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By RANDALL GOULD

With Project Gould Completed, We Can Call Of Project Gemini

They may now call off "Project Gemini." It's been done, with an improvement on the original idea.

Needless to say this is another great Marin County achievement and no Russians need apply.

Readers will recall that following Astronaut Cooper's recent jaunt there were great preparations in the more expensive scientific circles for "Project Gemini" which was to include two men in one vehicle.

What happened, quietly and modestly, was the successful accomplishment of "Project Gould" comprising one man and one woman in one vehicle.

LOTS MORE FUN than that drab Gemini notion.

Eschewing publicity and with hardly more than a token countdown, Agnes and I blasted off from our Mill Valley pad at an early hour and this is to announce our safe return after many a speedy orbit in outer (from Marin) space.

Don't think it was devoid of thrills, risk and physical hazard.

Outside temperatures were 105 degrees as we reached Scottsdale, Ariz., a spot selected as favorable for observation of nearby Phoenix.

We found that Phoenix contained both taxpayers and supervisors, as in Marin County. There were singular resemblances between there and here.

"Taxpayers In Revolt," proclaimed headlines.

AN OLD MANILA hand used to high temperatures, Fritz Marquardt by name, briefly abandoned his place at the helm of the Arizona Republic to come out and brief us.

"What are the taxpayers in revolt against?" we inquired.

"Taxes," was his answer in the proverbial nutshell.

"What do they want done about it?" we persisted.

"Less spending," said Fritz. "They will accept fewer services."

"What will less be spent on?" we asked, knowing the answer in advance.

Fritz, a keen observer and a man of worldwide experience, was quick with the right response: "Roads."

"We might just as well have stayed in Marin County," sighed the intrepid Gould. As Editor Marquardt looked a little moody I sought to cheer him by recalling the words of a Marin veteran, one Marvin W. Brigham, who once said, "There is never enough money for roads."

That being the case, naturally it makes very little difference how much money is cut off the Public Works budget.

HAVING CLEARED these vital matters we went into orbit again, only to learn at 4:30 a.m. that perhaps due to thrift about road repair it is necessary to keep one's nighttime speed within a mere 50 miles per hour.

When the man thought I had been running 65, I told him that was a perfectly legal speed. In California, that is.

One thing about me, I never run beyond legal speed. On the Kansas Turnpike, for instance, this is 80. In Nevada it is whatever suits the situation.

I have no patience with niggling minds argumentative over fitting a certain speed to a certain place. A legal speed is a legal speed.

The trouble with too many law enforcement officials is that they fail to be reasonable. When we got to the east entrance of Yosemite, for instance, they wouldn't let us over Tioga Pass because they claimed it was full of snow.

Why, we had just seen a Scottsdale thermometer reading 105. Imagine!

ON THE WHOLE this was no great loss, though, for at Stateline I put two quarters in a funny machine and got three back. This cheered us up quite a bit as contrast to what happened to some other money we invested.

Next time you come over we might show you colored slides. Except that we had the common humanity not to take any. Give us daring astronauts credit. But like Cooper, we ARE "a bit woozy."

10 YEARS AGO

Undeterred by repeated failure to establish a county airport, Marin supervisors passed a resolution calling for fresh exploration of possibilities and offering to accept gift land.

San Rafael voters approved off-street parking but disapproved a $325,000 bond issue which would have provided for it. The city council figured it would have to wait a while.

Bridgeway Might Be Widened

Bridgeway, along Sausalito's only open stretch of water, may be widened by two lanes to include added parking, passage for emergency vehicles, and a park or large promenade.

The Sausalito city council discussed such a plan last night with the idea of making funds available for engineering studies in its 1963-64 budget. It took no action pending a "walk-over" of the area Saturday morning.

The portion to be widened is between Richardson and Princess streets.

Money to widen, according to city mgr. Charles A. Brown, would come from gasoline tax funds, with at least $165,000 needed for the project.

The roadway could have three lanes of traffic with street parking on each side, Brown reported, but councilmen generally favored no parking on the bay side and spoke for keeping two lanes of traffic.

Russell H. Papenhausen, first vice president of the Sausalito Chamber of Commerce, went around and around with the council in an attempt to get $300 for brochures to publicize the city, but with limited success.

"I think it's an outright insult if you turn this $300 down," said Papenhausen. "In fact, there's a lot of people saying we're going to donate, pass the hat. I think it's a damn dirty shame."

Mayor Paul Micou said the $300 for brochures was set up in the current budget but a letter from the chamber said the money was not for brochures but office supplies.

"We can't transfer city funds to your account so you will have money for printing the brochures in the future," said councilman Jan Paul Dyk. Councilman Michael Harris added, "it becomes almost a gift of public funds."

"Send us a bill for $300 when you start printing the brochures," Micou suggested.

Sausalito hopes to have selected its four new firemen by Tuesday, Brown reported to councilmen. By June 18, Brown hopes to know when the city will be able to resume a round-the-clock ambulance service.

The ambulance is being manned "almost 24 hours a day," Brown stated but cannot be staffed fulltime since there are insufficient firemen to put two men in the vehicle at all times. The council adopted a policy April 16 that the ambulance must have two men.

Dyk reported he has inspected the ambulance and found it does not lack supplies as was charged May 21 by Mrs. Marsha Owen (Sally Stanford).

Brown told councilmen, "When you call for an ambulance you get an ambulance. If not Sausalito's the call goes through county communications. You make one call only."

The council heard a letter from the Sausalito Woman's Club asking that "immediate steps be taken to have two men available at all times" to accompany the ambulance.

Ardilla Land Co. was granted a use permit and variance to build 180 apartment units on Rodeo Hill, conditioned by the requirement that interior roads be approved by the city engineer.

Councilmen referred the library board's $9,000 budget request to the finance committee to be discussed Monday with library trustees. If granted, Micou said, it would necessitate a four and one-half cent increase in the tax rate.

The Sausalito city council also:

1. Said it will review a request by George R. Jackson, on behalf of Wolfback Ridge Assn. that the city provide assistance to the street oiling fund.

2. Heard a request from the Sausalito Cruising Club for any help the city might extend so the club could remain in its Napa Street location.

3. Adopted a resolution to abandone a portion of Sausalito Boulevard between Second and Third streets and set a hearing for July 2.

4. Adjourned to next Tuesday at 8 p.m. Following regular business, the council will discuss the proposed zoning ordinance.

New Pharmacy Opening July 1

A new drug store, to be known as Paradise Pharmacy, will be opened July 1 in the Paradise Shopping Center, 5633 Paradise Drive, Corte Madera.

The property is being developed by Cal-Mar Properties of Corte Madera. The pharmacy will be located in a 3,000-square foot building now under construction adjacent to the Embee Market. The building was designed by Clifford W. Parlee of Kentfield; construction is by Al Villa of Novato.

Lessees of the store are Daniel P. Donovan of 6 Stone Court, San Anselmo, Rudolph Harrich of Daly City, and Richard Taricco of San Francisco. They operate St. Mary Prescription Pharmacy and Alta Plaza Pharmacy in San Francisco. Taricco will manage the Corte Madera store.

Ex-Corte Madera Aide Hospitalized

Foster E. Mahood, 66, former Corte Madera fire chief, postmaster and town treasurer, was taken to San Rafael General Hospital early today after having trouble breathing at his home at 119 Palm Avenue.

His wife called a doctor, who advised calling the fire department. A resuscitator squad responded about 2 a.m.

At the hospital, it was reported only that he had been admitted for observation and was conscious.

Sereda Leaving Novato

Dr. Joseph Sereda, chairman of the board of trustees of Novato Unified School District, served his last meeting on that board last night prior to leaving Novato.

"It's been a real pleasure to serve with you, and I'll be back someday," Sereda said.

Trustee Earl Marshall said, for himself and other trustees, "we have gone through hell together, but it's been fine company."

Dr. Sereda will leave tomorrow to take training in general surgery at the Veteran's Administration hospital at Fort Howard near Baltimore. He said he would take at least one year of the training. Then he will switch to his chosen field, orthopedic surgery.

Accidents take the lives of 90,000 persons annually in the United States.

3 Novato School Aides Get Raises

Salaries of the three top administrators of the Novato Unified School District were increased last night by the trustees of the district after a 20-minute closed session.

Eugene De Brecht, assistant superintendent in charge of business, was given a three-year contract with an increase from $13,000 to $13,500 per year.

Paul Mobley, curriculum director, was given a two-year contract calling for a $700 per year increase from $12,500 to $13,200.

Supt. James G. Bunker was given a new four-year contract with a $600 a year increase from $18,000 to $18,600. He was hired last year to succeed William J. J. Smith.

Trustee William Kirk told the three, "this is not what we would have liked to have given you, but if the district gets more money, you will be considered for a further increase."

Two reporters present questioned the legality of holding a closed session for salary discussion. Kirk said it was "to renew contracts, which was equivalent of hiring a person" under the Ralph M. Brown Act. Bunker's original contract, however, had three years yet to run.

Insecticide Blamed In Death Of Boy, 4

VISALIA (AP) — An insecticide is blamed for the death of 4-year-old Frank Gonzales, who wandered into an orchard and ate sprayed peaches.

Tulare county pathologist Dr. Donald McGrew said yesterday the boy died Saturday of pneumonia resulting from poisoning by an organic insecticide, probably parathion.

Awards Handed Out To College Of Marin Students

Under a hot June sun yesterday afternoon, about 150 College of Marin students sat on the main quadrangle lawn to see 24 students receive scholarship awards and 19 outgoing student officers receive certificates.

High on the list of those honored was Dennis Dettmer of San Rafael, who died about two months ago. He posthumously was declared winner of the scholarship cup award for the highest grade point average.

The late student, who lost his sight in high school, also received the $50 faculty award, which his father, Stanley Dettmer, of 1927 Fifth Avenue, said he would put into a memorial loan fund for needy students.

Mr. and Mrs. Dettmer witnessed the awards assembly with college president Stephen E. Epler.

Michael Walsh of Larkspur, baseball outfielder, received the $400 San Rafael Kiwanis Club scholarship, the $100 Dick Signorelli scholarship, and the $25 Alpha Gamma Sigma scholarship, the last for the most outstanding citizenship and scholastic record.

The program was introduced about 12:15 p.m. by outgoing student president Margaret Deedy of Ross, who gave the oath of office to next fall semester's student officers, headed by Davis Campbell of Inverness.

Among the new executive council members was Edward Salmina of Novato, named yesterday as the next editor of the Tower Times. Epler presented pins to the outgoing officers and certificates of election to the new officers.

Besides the nine student officers elected or appointed so far, six others will be appointed later and four class representatives will be elected in September.

Other scholarship awards, presented by Dr. Epler, dean of instruction Paul Clymer, dean of students Irwin P. Diamond, liberal arts chairman Leonard Blomquist, counselor Margaret Greene, business chairman Weaver Meadows, faculty association vice president William Scalapin, drama instructor Irene Clark, and Miss Deedy as follows:

College of Marin, restricted to majors in teaching and social science: Patricia Scanlon, San Quentin Village, and Karen Thornson, San Anselmo, $375 each, and Jerry Smith, San Quentin Village, $250.

College of Marin, unrestricted: Theodor and Richard Mogel, both Petaluma, $375 each. San Rafael Rotary Club: James K. Willwerth, Novato, former Tower Times editor, $350.

San Rafael Improvement Club: Stephen Bryant, Mill Valley, $250; citizenship cups: Miss Deedy, Marc Mezzetta, San Rafael, and Suzanne Scott, Larkspur.

Music: Michele Meyer, Novato, $150. Grace Albright Memorial for teaching students: Barbara Woelz, San Rafael, $100. Ross Valley Teachers Assn.: Carol Gamas, Fairfax, $145. Bank of America, Jeffrey Payne, Novato, $100, and Harry Sullivan Jr., San Anselmo, certificate.

Drama: Terry Bradley, San Rafael, best actor; Julie Donahue, Mill Valley, best actress; Rosalie Farre, Ross, best supporting player; Julia Hopkins, San Rafael, leading role; Roy Trumbull, Corte Madera, publicity; David Williams, San Rafael, outstanding contribution in set designing, all for "Five Finger Exercise" by Peter Shaffer.

County Assessment Roll Is Due July 1

County Assessor Bert W. Broemmel told county supervisors yesterday that he expects to deliver the annual property assessment roll to County Clerk George A. Gnoss on July 1.

On a basis of this, property owners will be able to compare their own assessments with assessments of other similar property. In case of apparent inequity they are allowed to appeal to the supervisors as a board of equalization.

Broemmel urged the supervisors to allow the assessor's office three days, rather than the usual two days, for preparation of rebuttal cases by setting the protest deadline at 5 p.m. on Wednesday, July 10, rather than the following day. By law the supervisors may hear testimony through July 15 though the state will grant extension of time if necessary.

The board, however, tended to take a dim view of any reduction in the protest period. Decision was postponed in hope of a full attendance next Tuesday. Only three supervisors were present yesterday.

"I'm disturbed over any appearance of cutting the public off," said acting Chairman William D. Fusselman. "Some people may be away on vacation. This might be regarded as unfair."

"The issue is, what is a reasonable time for preparation and filing of an appeal?" said Supervisor Peter Behr.

Supervisor George Ludy turned the balance by suggesting that most protests are likely to come from the recently assessed Novato area and that its supervisor, William A. Gnoss, who was away on a trip yesterday, might have something to say next week.

The supervisors also:

1. Reappointed Victor McKinnon and Gordon A. Phillips to four-year terms on the building trades board of appeals.

2. Authorized acquisition of three educational sound films on venereal disease for the county health department at cost of $243.15 refundable by the state.

3. Provided the county clerk with two rear rooms in the east wing of the old county hospital for storage of election and voting equipment.

4. As "a rare incident, not setting a precedent" allowed the health department to send three rather than the customary two representatives to a health conference at Asilomar.

5. Declared surplus 160 outdated law books stored in the courthouse basement.

6. Authorized use of county road personnel and equipment to aid preparations for the Marin Art and Garden Fair on a basis of cost reimbursement.

7. Heard a report on pending educational legislation by Dr. Rudolph S. Kupfer, assistant county school superintendent.

8. Received a public works department recommendation against a 15-mile-an-hour speed limit on Via Escondido, Novato, the vehicle code authorizing nothing less than 25 miles an hour, but deferred action for return of Supervisor Gnoss next Tuesday.

9. Ordered prohibition of parking in front of the Civic Center postoffice for a 60-foot strip, with only 15-minute parking on an adjoining northerly 45 feet.

10. Supported county counsel recomemndation that a damage claim from Clifford W. and Marjorie Parlee be rejected in connection of the construction of the Wolfe Grade overpass on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

11. Approved employment of Edward D. Ritchie as junior civil engineer on temporary hire at $580 monthly.

Ross Police Radio Tied Into System

Starting this week, a Ross policeman can, for the first time, radio to another policeman in a patrol car anywhere in the county, through a new setup with the County Communications Center.

Before, transmission was sent from Ross police headquarters on one radio band, but was received from the cars on a different one. The sending was done through a county communications center transmitter.

Now, Ross has its own transmitter and joins the county's city police band for both sending and receiving. The only cities without transmitters now are Belvedere, Larkspur and Corte Madera.

The county communications center handles the job of go-between between the cars and different departments, especially when there is no one at the police station in a small city.

San Rafael, which maintains a man on the radio around the clock and operates on a separate band, will also be tied in with the county system within 60 days.

Plans call for the eventual consolidation so that there will be a single radio band for all police, another for the sheriff, a third for fires, and a fourth for local governmental use.

All radio bands are monitored by the communications center, and systems can be interconnected, if needed, so that policemen and firemen can talk to each other over radios, for instance.

When driving on a long vacation, loaded with baggage or sporting equipment, inflate your tires two to four more pounds. Be sure to add the air when your tires are cool.

School Merger Roadblocks Told

A strong feeling in Marin of "wanting to be a community" gets in the way when consultant specialists start making recommendations about unifying the county's school districts.

The San Rafael Board of Education was told this last night by the representative of a consulting firm hired by the San Rafael, Dixie, San Jose and Novato school districts to recommend plans for reorganization of the four districts.

"The feeling of community is desirable," said Edward Anderson of Booz, Allen and Hamilton, "but it gets in the way when you start making recommendations."

A rough draft of the firm's report should be ready by July, he said.

"You're living in an intelligent, ambitious and highly mobile population," Anderson told the board. "They're transients, but while they're here, they want a say in what's happening. And they're often at odds with the people who've lived here a long time."

Anderson then noted the "say" is sometimes restricted to the few.

"It's not too many people who decide these things," he said. "I've been looking for the key people in the tracts who carry the influence.

"It's not a question of the caliber of the leadership but of a small group the people rally around. It's not the people but the leadership."

Anderson observed that the leadership in San Rafael is "well defined," but the community leaders in the San Jose School Districts "are almost impossible to find."

He said he's found school boards "very jealous of their own operation. But they've been sincere," he added. "They're not using the school boards for other purposes."

The idea of neighborhood elementary schools is firmly implanted with residents and should be kept, Anderson said. "When an elementary school reaches 1,000, you can really lose contact with the neighborhood." The number of students shauld range from 300 to 600 an elementary school, he said. Junior high schools should aim for 1,200 students, and high schools 1,200 to 2,500.

"There's a danger in building too large a school," he concluded. "Sometimes the departments become kingdoms."

Bingo May Be Legalized —But Don't Make Bets

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Illegal church bazaars, little league car raffles or fraternal hall bingo games may become legal in California—but don't bet on it.

The State Constitution now forbids bingo, lotteries and "gift enterprises," for example, buying a ticket in hope of winning a car at a little league fund-raising affair.

The Assembly constitutional amendments committee, however sent to the Assembly floor yesterday a constitutional amendment which—if approved by two-thirds of both houses—would go to the people in 1964 to let them decide whether cities and counties should be able to legalize bingo, local lotteries and so forth.

Assemblyman Alan Pattee (R-Salinas), backed by representatives from the Moose, Disabled American Veterans and Knights of Columbus, said it should be left up to local option whether to legalize what goes on anyway.

He said his measure would end the hypocrisy of one town allowing such things, and a neighboring town enforcing the law against them.

Under his proposed amendment, residents in a city or county could vote to set up a licensing agency to regulate bingo games and similar fund raising events. Only religious, charitable, fraternal or educational organizations could operate them, and limits would be set on the value of prizes.

Reed School Head Gets $1,500 Raise

By a 3-2 vote, Reed Union School District trustees last night granted Supt. Edward C. Pino a raise in salary from $16,500 to $18,000.

Edwin Farley, trustee, in voting no, said he was pleased with the administration but felt the raise was out of line on a percentage basis compared with the other raises granted. Trustee Leo Souza sided with Farley.

A raise of approximately 2 per cent was granted the teaching staff. Substitute teachers will receive $2 per day more and summer school teachers $25 more for the session.

Salaries of Principals Robert B. Gaw and John C. Fitch were raised $1,000 and the district's newly appointed fulltime principal, Jack Usilton, was given a $1,500 raise. Fifty dollars was added to summer school Principal Harold Bickel as salary. A 2 per cent across-the-board raise for classified employees was approved.

NOVATO TRUSTEES GIVE BUDGET LOOK

A preliminary operating budget of $1,961,399 for the 1963-64 school year was submitted last night by Supt. James G. Bunker to Novato Unified School District trustees.

The budget is slightly higher than the $1,817,175 for this year, Bunker pointed out. However, it calls for no increase in the tax rate of $4.69, said Eugene De Brecht, assistant superintendent in charge of business.

"The district plans to spend $1,526,095 for instruction," Bunker said. "This is the biggest share of the budget."

The superintendent showed figures on expenditures per pupil for unified districts in California. In the 1960-61 school year, the state averaged $428 while Novato spent only $396. In 1961-62, this was $444 to $391, and for this year, $460 to $394.

"We are falling farther and farther behind the state average," Bunker said. "We just do not have the valuation in this district."

The board authorized purchase of $5,635 in electric shop equipment for the high school, $2,500 in homemaking and $2,000 in woodworking shop equipment for Hill Junior High School.

"This is the beginning for the three new shop courses in the fall," Bunker told the board.

The Novato Unified School District Board Also:

1. Accepted as complete the $22,737 drainage contract at the high school.
2. Renewed the student accident insurance policy with North American Life and Casualty Co. This voluntary insurance will cost $2 for elementary school children and $3.50 for those in high school. The district also renewed its insurance for students on field trips with the same company.
3. Accepted resignations of Mrs. Bernice Van Ammelrooy as sixth grade teacher at Lu Sutton School and Donald L. Auman as custodian.
4. Hired Madelyn O'Brien as first grade teacher at Marion School, eKnneth Ingraham to teach woodshop in the high school, Mrs. Marjorie Mowatt to teach English in the high school, Edward Weston to teach auto mechanics in the high school, and George Gillen to replace Auman as custodian.
5. Granted a four day leave at the end of the school year to Herbert Steiniger, foreign language teacher at the high school.
6. Agreed to have the school administrators work with classified personnel to seek a way to grant about 75 per cent of requested $21,000 in pay increases for next year.

$621,800 Bid Accepted By Reed Trustees

A bid of $621,800 by the Pacific Co. of Berkeley for additions to the Del Mar School was accepted last night by Reed School District trustees, pending approval of the state department of finance.

A lower bid of approximately $548,000 by Pacific Coast Builders was eliminated at request of the company because an error had been made in the bid.

Construction on the buildings, designed by architects Callister and Rosse, is expected to start in a week, Supt. Edward C. Pino announced.

Six classrooms are scheduled for completion in mid-September and the remaining 100 days later. When completed the addition will total 16 rooms, including special rooms for foreign language, art, science, typing, home economics, manual arts, multi-purpose, showers and lockers, library, a laboratory and administration offices.

Also included in the plans are completion of landscaping and removal of "the barn," present district office, to increase playground space.

The school is being financed partly through state aid and partly through the second phase of the building program outlined in the bond program approved by voters in January, Pino said.

The firm of Abbot A. Hanks Inc. was engaged to perform testing, soil mechanics and materials engineering. David H. Teather was employed as building inspector.

Ground breaking ceremonies are scheduled for next week.

Mrs. Robert Bastian requested clarification of the district's intent in upper grade English classes next year. She said she had learned at an orientation coffee party yesterday morning that children would be grouped heterogeneously in studying the principles of grammar. She felt this would not benefit the children who are not meeting grade standards.

She was assured the grammar classes would be grouped by ability.

Boy, 15, Is Killed As Tractor Flips

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Gene R. Kadinger, 15, Elk Grove, was crushed to death beneath a tractor yesterday when the machine turned over on a farm at Pleasant Grove near here.

Installation Set For Lions Club In Corte Madera

Installation of officers of the Corte Madera Lions Club will be held tomorrow at the town recreation center. The event had been scheduled for June 15, but a conflict of dates forced rescheduling.

A social hour will start at 7:30 p.m., followed by music and entertainment. These officers will be installed:

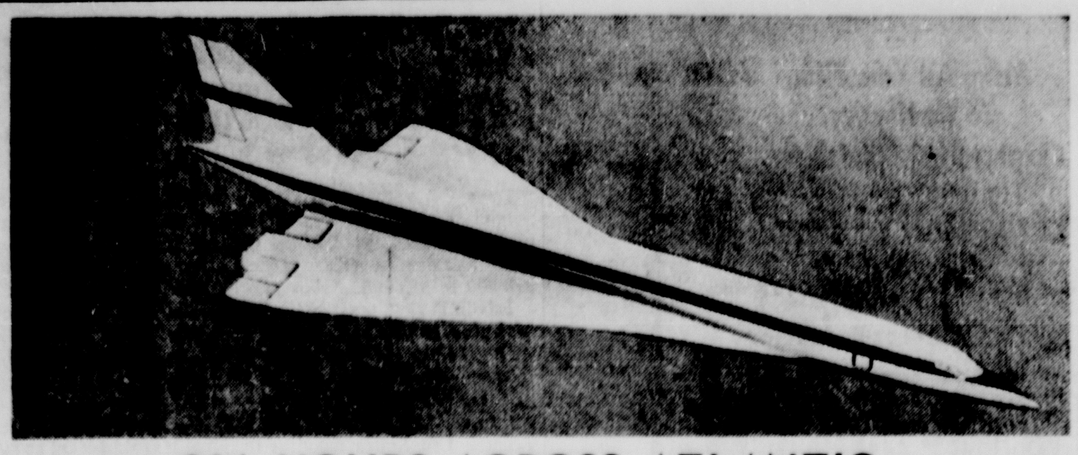
Wine Group Elects

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The directors of the Wine Institute have re-elected Robert Mondavi of St. Helena chairman of the board and re-appointed Don W. McColly of San Francisco as president and general manager.



2½ HOURS ACROSS ATLANTIC

Pan American World Airways announced today it has ordered supersonic jet airliners that will fly the Atlantic Ocean in two and one-half hours. The 1,500-an-hour planes are produced jointly by British and French companies with the financial aid of their countries. The planes will be flight tested in 1966 and go into production in 1968. Speed Limit Is Reduced On Highway

Motorists were warned by the California Highway Patrol today that a temporary 45-mile-an-hour limit on Highway 101 north of Marinwood should be observed for their own safety.

"We're not getting good compliance and we must," said Capt. Theodore F. Parnow, heading the Marin County patrol operation. "A great deal of heavy equipment is moving, and construction is being carried out actually in the roadway from about a quarter-mile north of the Black Point cut-off south to just north of Marinwood.

Sausalito's Parking Fees Might Be Hiked

Sausalito, a city where the parking meters are operated seven days a week, may increase its parking meter fees from five cents to 10 cents per hour.

City councilmen last night introduced an ordinance for the increase and set a public hearing for June 18. The city is also attempting to get parking meter fines raised from $1 to $2.

The downtown area would be affected but excluding the 12 meters on Caledonia Street and "those with the longest walk to downtown Sausalito." Those two areas would remain at five cents.

Conversion of existing meters would cost $4 to $9 each or about $3,000, City Mgr. Charles A. Brown said. Revenues for one year would be about $13,000 to $15,000.

"The increased money would balance the outgo so the general fund money being spent to subsidize (the meters) can be diverted to general city needs," Brown said. "Then we would have our program in balance."

Doctor Edwards Sued For Divorce

Dr. William M. Edwards Jr. of San Rafael is being sued for divorce on grounds of extreme cruelty.

Mrs. Myrtle L. Edwards, who lives with their three children at 36 Loma Linda Road, San Rafael, filed the complaint yesterday in Marin Superior Court.

They were married in Las Vegas in 1947 and separated two Sundays ago. Mrs. Edwards seeks custody of the children, the family home, an equitable division of community property, and reasonable support.

McCarthy Against Tourist Bill

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Sen. John F. McCarthy (R-San Rafael) today expressed opposition to creation of a state tourist-attraction agency on grounds that the state "should stay out of the public relations and advertising business."

McCarthy, a member of the Senate governmental efficiency committee which is scheduled to take up the bill (AB374) today, said that attracting tourists to California is no problem.

"I cannot understand why Governor Brown feels we should create a tax-financed travel bureau before we first find ways to pay for new beaches, parks and other recreational facilities necessary to handle the tourists we already have," McCarthy said.

The Empire State Building is 1,250 feet high.

Supervisors Will Meet On Salaries

Adjournment of yesterday's regular Tuesday meeting of Marin County supervisors was to 9 a.m. next Monday when salary recommendations for the 1963-64 budget will be tackled as the start of a two-week schedule of daily sessions.

It is expected that material submitted yesterday from the personnel department will provide a basis for a full day of work Monday even though department heads probably won't testify to their needs at that time. Procedure last year was to hear from the department heads in connection with subsequent detailed consideration of their department needs.

Next Tuesday will be given over as usual to routine weekly business as will the following Tuesday, June 18.

But at 9 a.m. Wednesday the round of departmental considerations will start with the county superintendent of schools and miscellaneous education.

At 10 a.m. Assessor Bert W. Broemmel will start a probably lively hour, as his office offers special problems in recruiting and training technicians. The morning will end with the communications department starting at 11 a.m.

During the afternoon of the first day departments to be heard will include county counsel, fire, auditor-controller and revenue division and fish and game.

Each day thereafter the board will work through a set schedule starting at 9 a.m. and continuing each afternoon from 1:30 p.m. except for the last day, June 21, when the last item—promotion and development, due for special overhaul this year—is scheduled for 10 a.m. with the afternoon left open to care for any possible emergency.

Ross School Trustees Hire Vice Principal At $9,000

Robert Marmorstein, principal of Penngrove School near Petaluma, was hired last night as vice principal of Ross School, replacing Charles Fitch, who is leaving at the end of this school year.

Supt. Donald D. Leister also told the district board at its special meeting that the proposed budget will allow about a 2 cent tax cut per $100 assessed valuation.

The board approved a new salary schedule, giving approximately a five per cent pay increase across the board. The new starting salary will be $5,250 a year.

A tentative budget, totaling $275,915 was presented to the board for study, but the salary increase is expected to add about $5,000 to that figure. Last year's budget totaled $270,455.

Leister explained that the general purpose tax rate would probably increase from $2.09 to $2.13, and that the override taxes would stay the same. But the tax for bond retirement will be cut from 17 cents to about 11 cents. The bonds are expected to be paid off completely in 1965.

The present total tax rate is $2.37.

Marmorstein graduated from San Francisco State College. He will receive a starting salary of $9,000.

Five new teachers were also hired: Mrs. Robert Pettegrew, Barbara Elliott, Gloria Iwanicki, Mrs. Vivian Cleath and Mrs. Dorothea Botermans. Mrs. Botermans will teach half time.

Novato School Trustees May Set New Meeting Dates

A Novato publisher and a state law last night stymied for a month a move for the Novato Unified School District board to change its twice-monthly meetings from Tuesday to Monday nights.

Trustee-elect William G. Schneeflock asked that the board change its meetings to the first and third Monday nights each month. Schneeflock, who is employed by University of California Agricultural Extension Service, said it was difficult for him to be in town on week nights.

As trustees nodded agreement, George Barnwell, editor-publisher of the weekly Novato Advance, which appears on Wednesdays, arose to declare: "I see a diabolical, insidious plot between an out-of-town paper and the school board . . . If you change the meeting date, you will get nothing but bad news from me from now on."

Chairman Joseph Sereda offered Theron A. Newell, Independent-Journal reporter, "equal time" to reply to Barnwell. Newell said Schneeflock's proposal had been a surprise to him, but suggested that as the neighboring San Jose School District board meets the first and third Mondays, the Novato board might prefer the second and fourth Mondays.

The board voted to so set the dates. But then Supt. James G. Bunker cited a state law which says the meeting dates must be set at the first meeting in July each year, so action was postponed.

Water Vapor Is Detected On Mars

PASADENA (UPI) — Scientists today disclosed the detection of water vapor on Mars and said the discovery increased the chances of finding life on the red planet.

The report came from scientists at the California Institute of Technology who also reported carbon dioxide was much more concentrated in the Martian atmosphere than had been supposed. This, together with the presence of water, would create a "greenhouse effect" on Mars.

But the scientists said there was very little moisture compared to earth and not nearly enough to fill any canals which years ago were thought to exist on the planet.

Congress has passed a law protecting all eagles.

Recreation Future Is Topic Tonight

What sort of public parks will exist in Marin County 10 and 50 years from now?

This and other questions about the future of outdoor recreation in Marin will be discussed tonight at 8 o'clock in the board of supervisors room at the civic center at a special panel discussion sponsored by the county parks and recreation commission.

Called "the many faces of recreation," the discussion will feature recreation experts from federal, state and bay area agencies.

The commission will hold a brief meeting prior to the discussion at 7:30 p.m. in room 332 in the civic center.

U.S. Cardinals To Fly To Rome

NEW YORK (AP) — The five princes of the Roman Catholic Church in the United States are expected to fly to Rome for the funeral of Pope John XXIII.

Francis Cardinal Spellman of New York, Albert Cardinal Meyer of Chicago and James Cardinal McIntyre of Los Angeles were to fly to Rome today.

Richard Cardinal Cushing of Boston said he plans to leave for Rome Sunday.

Marin Redevelopment Meeting Set Monday

There will be a special meeting of the Marin County Redevelopment Agency Monday at 2 p.m. to decide design and sales prices of 36 new "pole houses" to be constructed in Marin City. No action was taken last Monday because of inadequate information, executive director Bert Klahn reported.

The commission did agree that the maximum price for the sale of lots to individual purchasers intending to build a custom house in unit 4 would be $2,500.

It also established a policy with Barrett Construction Co. to permit credit for deposits on homes already constructed in cases where families wish to wait for unit 4 relocation housing. It was reported to the commission that 34 sales have been made of the 46 "pole houses" now constructed.

Native Sons Award 2 25-Year Emblems

Two San Rafael residents were awarded 25-year membership emblems by Mount Tamalpais Parlor 64 of the Native Sons of the Golden West Monday night at the Portuguese-American Hall.

The recipients were Robert Zappetini of 1113 Second Street and Frank A. Milani of 21 Glenwood Drive.

SACRAMENTO (CNS) —Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan today announced issuance of a notary public commission to Charles H. Giudici, 204 C Street, San Rafael.

Workman's Bill Is Banged Out

SACRAMENTO (AP)—An Assembly committee banged out a workmen's compensation insurance package last night without debate, explanation or comment.

The chairman of the Finance and Insurance Committee, Assemblyman James R. Mills (D-San Diego) referred reporters to the lobbyist for the California State Chamber of Commerce for an explanation of what the bills do.

Thomas L. Pitts, secretary-treasurer of the California Labor Federation, AFL-CIO, told a reporter he didn't know what had happened. He reserved comment until he studies the 21-bill package.

Boy Dies Of Injuries In Truck Accident

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — A 4-year-old boy died of injuries in a hospital yesterday after he was struck Monday by a truck when he ran from high grass bordering Richards Boulevard here.

Witnesses said the boy was playing in high grass with other children near the boulevard and Dos Rios Road when he ran from the grass into the path of the truck, driven by Robert Lalonde Jr., Loomis.

Ernie Banks May Not Be Too Far Off When He Picks Cubs To Win

CONNOLLY

Ralph (Babe) Pinelli, retired National League umpire, had just left Ernie Banks, one of the All-Time greats, who raced to take his turn in the batting cage.

"There's a real optimist," the Babe said as he greeted us. "Do you know?" asked the Babe, "that Banks just picked the Cubs to win the 1963 National League pennant.

"NO FOOLIN'," continued Pinelli. "He's on the square and really believes Cub pitching and the all-around improvement of Andre Rodgers at shortstop will plunk the Chicago entry in the winners circle."

Nobody in particular took the thoughts of Banks, as relayed by Pinelli, really serious. Now, after more than 50 games have been reeled off, I'd like to think Ernie wasn't kidding. He is one of the most interesting and likeable guys in baseball. And a real baseball conversationalist.

"He's dead serious," Pinelli kept saying as he fingered through the press and TV Cub year book to check the personnel of the team.

BANKS, according to Pinelli, had a hunch the Cubs would get good pitching from the likes of Bob Buhl, Dick Ellsworth, Glenn Hobbie, Larry Jackson, Cal Koonce, Lindy McDaniel, Barney Schulz and others on the staff.

"Banks knows something he isn't telling," Pinelli kept trying to fathom the reason for such optimism. "He is a real loyal fellow, team player and a close friend of owner P. K. Wrigley."

Since that day last spring it has been revealed that P. K. Wrigley, as late as last November, decided to go with one manager instead of his formerly cantakerous multiple-coach and manager system.

ALTHOUGH the ex-Marine Bob Kennedy was signed in November 1962 he wasn't named Manager in charge until just before the team went into spring training. It could have been that Banks had known of such a move before he spoke with the Babe.

Now as the Cubs are heading for the halfway mark in the flag chase, you begin to see how the analytic Banks figured. He liked the looks of the infield with Ken Hubbs, Ron Santo and Andre Rodgers and was more than impressed with Lou Brock, Billy Williams and Nelson Matthews in the outfield.

It is hard to picture the feeble Cubs—who since 1945 when they won the pennant have only been in the first division once—being considered a muscle team. But Brock, Williams, Bartell, Matthews, Banks and Rodgers are now admittedly strong hitters.

FOR SOME unknown and unexplained reason, the Cubs got jangled up in a weird multiple coach system that smacked of silly thinking. Then to get away from the 11-man coach idea, they hired an intelligent Air Force colonel with positively no baseball background to be an athletic director. Bob Whitlow, the colonel, gets credit for naming Kennedy the field boss by everyone excepting Kennedy who, I'm told, doesn't even allow him to sit on the bench during a ball game.

If you don't think the Cubs can be a high-toned outfit, just remember they won't permit night baseball at Wrigley Field. And barring the noctural style of play has cost them a pretty penny. So if anyone thinks P. K. Wrigley is losing any sleep over what his critics think of his way of directing the Chicago Cubs, let them forget it. When PK decides it's time for a Chicago championship, he'll get it, come hell or high water.

Meanwhile the low down is that the Cubs soon will be turned over to the son of PK and then we shall see what we shall see.

Nomellini Signs; More 49er Wrangling

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—One happy sign, or signature to be more exact, appeared today amidst the San Francisco 49ers contract season wrangling as Leo (The Lion) Nomellini agreed to terms for his 14th season with the National Football League club.

Still, Ted Connolly wants to be traded and Bruce Bosley isn't satisfied and hints he has a good offer from the American Football League for 1964.

Bosley's blast even brought NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle into the act to explain the league's pension rule.

While Connolly and Bosley voiced their dissatisfaction on their situations, Nomellini quietly signed for 1963 and hoped nobody would note he'll be 39 years old on June 19.

Nomellini holds the all-time professional football record of 160 consecutive league games and, counting exhibitions, has played in 237 straight. The former Minnesota All-America is one of the few players in NFL history to win All-Pro rating on both offense and defense.

Otherwise, along the 49er line there are troubles.

Bosley, who switched from guard to center last season, declared, "Right now, I am more firm in demanding my fair salary figure than I ever was before. The raise I am asking for will be spent 10 times over by the 49ers trying to sign some rookie who may not even pan out."

Bosley said Coach Red Hickey told him the commissioner could revoke his pension benefits if he tried to play out his option. This statement brought a Hickey denial and a Rozelle explanation.

"In contract talks I've had with Bosley," said Hickey, "he informed me he had a chance to go to the other football league (American) and to do that he would have to play out his option. The option clause gives us another year of his services.

"Naturally I felt that it was only right to inform him of the clause in the retirement benefits under which it is possible for him to lose his retirement benefits if he were to sign in another league.

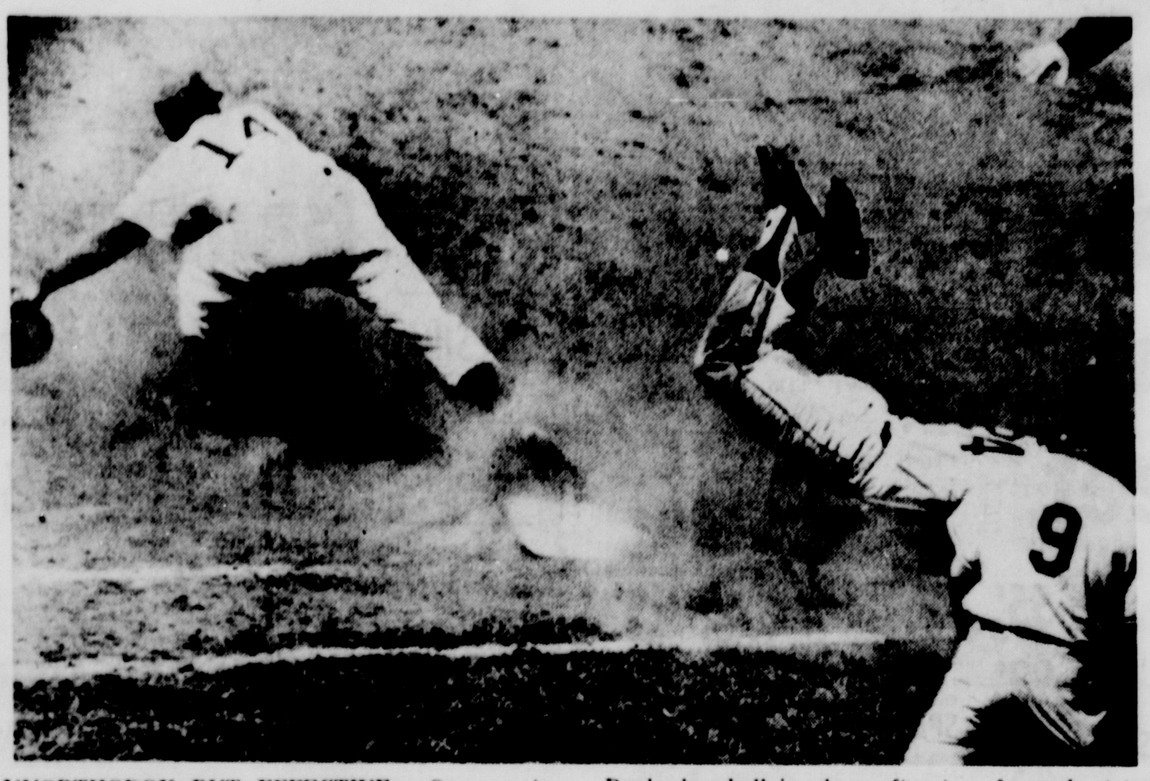
"That has nothing to do with his playing out his option."

Pro football contracts hold a player only for one additional year. By taking the option of playing out that extra year, a player is free to go to another team or league. So, in New York, Rozelle explained.

"In the NFL, if a player goes to another league as a coach, or leaves our league and retires, his rights are unimpaired. If he goes to another league as a player, a retirement board has the option of denying him his benefits. Circumstances would be a factor in any ruling, but if a player doesn't want to be a part of our organization and leaves it, his benefits can be forfeited."

Connolly says he doesn't want to play for Hickey, and the coach said:

"He asked to be traded and was told if an equal trade could be brought about, he would be traded. If not, he would be expected in camp to fulfill his contractual obligations. We have tried and, so far, haven't been able to come up with what we regard as an equal trade."



UNORTHODOX BUT EFFECTIVE — One way to get a hit is to make a head first dive at the bag as Giants' Willie Mays discovered in fourth inning of yesterday's game in Chicago. Cub first sacker Ernie Banks has ball in glove after toss from shortstop Andre Rodgers who made fine play on grounder. Mays went on to score Giants' lone run in 6-1 loss. (AP Wirephoto)

It Was Weird Day For Giant Baseball

CHICAGO (AP)—Ball four, yet out.

Those were the sidelights of a 6-1 Giants loss to the Chicago Cubs yesterday that cut the National League leaders' margin over St. Louis to 1½ games and over Chicago to only three games.

The highlights were the five-hit pitching of Chicago's Bob Buhl and the pair of errors by San Francisco first baseman Orlando Cepeda that opened the gates for the Cubs' scoring.

The surprising Chicagoans tried to move within a game of the Giants today in a double-header as they sent Dick Ellsworth, 7-3, and Glenn Hobbie, 1-5, against Jack Sanford, 7-3, and Jack Fisher, 3-6.

The ironic feature of Tuesday's game was that Buhl wasn't supposed to pitch. But when Larry Jackson was sidelined with a blister on the middle finger of his pitching hand, Buhl got the call.

All five hits he yielded were singles. The Giants combined one of them by Willie Mays with a walk to Orlando Cepeda, a wild pitch and Felipe Alou's sacrifice fly in the fourth inning for their lone run.

A minor pretense of a rally in the sixth inning failed to materialize at least in part because plate Umpire Jocko Conlon apparently lost track of the count.

Ed Bailey was on first with two out and Alou had taken, in order, ball one, strike one, ball two, strike two and ball three. Bailey called time to tie his shoe. Play resumed and Conlon signaled the count—2 and 2.

Alou argued but got nowhere. Buhl delivered another ball, but Conlon insisted the count was then 3-2—no walk for Alou. Felipe fanned on the next pitch.

The Giants' radio network studio replayed its tape of the proceedings and confirmed the strikeout following ball four.

The odd out at home occurred in the second. With two down Cepeda fumbled Ken Hubbs' short fly on the first base line for an error. Billy Williams walked and Ron Santo singled to center, scoring Hubbs as Williams moved to third.

Mays threw wild past third on the play but Bailey recovered the ball and threw Williams out at the plate, where shortstop Jose Pagan, of all people, was covering.

O'Dell took an 8-0 record into the game and lost in the first inning when two runs scored on four hits and Cepeda's first error—also on a ball hit by Hubbs.

STAR KILLED—Safety man Don Fleming of the Cleveland Browns was electrocuted yesterday when a cable brushed against a 12,000-volt power line at a construction site where he was working to stay in shape between seasons. He had been a safety man for the Browns since 1960. (AP Wirephoto)

'Bury The Hatchet' Says MacArthur

NEW YORK (AP)—Old Soldier Douglas MacArthur has told the warring amateur sports groups to bury the hatchet until after the 1964 Olympic Games—but whether his words will be heeded remains to be seen.

MacArthur said in a bristling statement issued yesterday that the feuding factions had agreed to do nothing that would keep athletes out of competition and hurt America's international teams.

If they don't keep their word, the five-start general said, they would "well merit the condemnation of every sportsman and, indeed, every patriotic American."

The general was appointed six months ago by President Kennedy to patch up the squabble between the Amateur Athletic Union and the new college-sponsored U.S. Track and Field Federation. The President said the dispute threatened to wreck the U.S. Olympic team for 1964.

MacArthur presided over the dispute in January and again in March but it has broken out again, centered on the National AAU track championships at St. Louis June 20-22. The U.S. team for a scheduled meet in Russia will be picked there.

The feud flared anew early this week when Asa Bushnell, commissioner of the Eastern College Athletic Conference, the largest college group in the country, reminded the ECAC members their athletes should not compete in the AAU meet unless the USTFF sanctions those athletes.

The AAU has steadfastly refused to ask for such sanctioning, leaving the two groups at loggerheads and the college athletes out in the cold.

Entry List Filled For State Golf

PEBBLE BEACH (AP) — The bulging entry list was filled today for California's rugged amateur golf championship and 350 of the state's low handicappers were ready to start shooting June 24 for young Dick Lotz's title.

The San Lorenzo defender, now attending San Mateo Junior College, faces a host of seasoned competitors in the class of his par-shooting brother John Lotz, and the Trans Mississippi champion George Archer of San Francisco.

Two days of qualifying over the exacting Pebble Beach and Cypress Point courses will trim the overloaded championship entry list down to 64 low scorers. And they will fight it out in grinding match play concluded by 36-hole finals June 30.

This year it was decided to abandon sectional qualifying and return to the old system of qualifying everybody right here on the Monterey Peninsula courses.

Preceding tournament play will be the annual North-South team matches June 22 and 23.

Giants Sign USF Baseball Player

Ray Reitz, 20, USF baseball captain and most valuable player, has been signed to a San Francisco Giant contract.

Reitz, a left-handed batting outfielder, hit .390 for the Dons this spring. He will be assigned to Decatur of the Midwest League.

BRITISH AMATEUR GOLF

Two More Yanks Are Upset

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland (AP)—Two members of the triumphant U.S. Walker Cup team were eliminated from the British Amateur Golf Championship today in second-round upsets, leaving only three still in the running.

Downing Gray of Pensacola, Fla., runner-up to Labron Harris Jr., in the U.S. amateur last year, and Charlie Smith, the power-hitting automobile dealer from Gastonia, N.C., were victims of a pair of almost unknown British golfers.

Gray was beaten on the 20th hole by Morrison Zuill of Scotland. Smith, troubled by an ailing back, took a 6 and 5 beating from Michael Lee of England.

They were the fourth and fifth members of the U.S. Walker Cup team to be beaten in the first two rounds on the trying 6,936-yard St. Andrews Old Course.

S.F. Seals Get New Goal Tender

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The San Francisco Seals won't repeat as Western Hockey League champions with Jim McLeod as goalie — they've bought another net-minder who's supposed to be better.

The Seals said yesterday they've paid more than $20,000 for Bob Perreault, 31, a 10-year pro owned by the Boston Bruins of the National Hockey League.

Perreault lost his shot at the Bruins' starting job last year when he was injured. "But he'll probably be one of the two best goalies in our league," said Seals General Manager Bud Poile.

McLeod was recalled by Seattle.

MAJOR ROUNDUP

Wills Is Back; L.A. Snaps Loss Skein

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Maury Wills is off and running again—and it's no coincidence that the Los Angeles Dodgers are back in the win column again.

The National League's most valuable player of 1962 was sidelined two weeks ago with a toe ailment that made the Dodgers hurt all over to the tune of eight losses in 12 games, including five in a row up to last night.

Then, the man who set an all-time major league record of 104 stolen bases in one season returned to action. His chances of challenging his own record are gone for this season but he showed in his first game that he has a more important quality: the ability to make the Dodgers win.

ENDS STREAK

The end of the Dodgers' five-game losing streak came with a 2-1 victory over the Houston Colts and the "odd run" was Wills' run—scored in the third inning when he singled, stole second and tallied on a single by Ron Fairly. Wills also scored the Dodgers' other run when he walked in the first inning, went to third on Junior Gilliam's double and tallied on a wild pitch by Dick Drott.

Bob Miller pitched five-hit ball for eight innings to win his fourth game with the ninth-inning relief aid of Ron Perranoski as the Dodgers advanced to within three games of the first-place San Francisco Giants, who were beaten by the surprising Chicago Cubs, 6-1.

BRAVES RALLY

The Milwaukee Braves rallied after 22⅔ consecutive scoreless innings for three runs in the ninth to beat the New York Mets, 3-2, in the only other N.L. game. Cincinnati and Pittsburgh were rained out.

The Dodger victory was a typical "Wills win" because the erratic-hitting Los Angeles club was held to three hits in seven innings by Drott. It was the old story of the light-hitting team needing something extra—and the 1962 story of Wills' speed producing that something extra.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

In the American League, the Baltimore Orioles beat the New York Yankees, 3-1, the Cleveland Indians downed the Detroit Tigers, 6-4, the Washington Senators edged out the Boston Red Sox, 1-0, the Minnesota Twins whipped the Kansas City Athletics, 5-0, and the Los Angeles Angels nipped the Chicago White Sox, 1-0.

Relief pitcher Galen Cisco walked in the tying run and forced in the winning run when he hit pinch-hitter Mack Jones with a pitched ball to present the Braves with their win over the Mets. Carlton Willey, ex-Brave, had shut out the Milwaukee swingers with two hits until the ninth. Relief pitcher Claude Raymond notched his fourth win for Milwaukee while the loss was Willey's fifth against four wins.

Gustafson Retires As Tam Coach

George Gustafson, dean of Marin County coaches, retired from the coaching ranks last night to devote full time to his new position of athletic director at Tamalpais High School.

Gustafson announced his retirement as coach of the Tam swim team at the banquet honoring the Tam swimmers. He had been coaching swimming at Tam since 1952 and has been with Tamalpais High School since 1934.

Varsity award winners for Tam were Jack Martin, most improved, and Tinsley Stetson, most valuable.

Dave Wilkinson was honored as the most improved C swimmer, and Emmett Yeazell was given the honor of most improved Class B tankman.

LITTLE LEAGUE HURLER GETS HIS REVENGE

Fair tossed a no-hitter against the Corvairs and hit a home run in the bottom of the sixth inning to win his own ball game 1-0.

Opposing pitcher for the Corvaris was Mike Einstein, who threw a no-hitter at the Lions Club in their frist meeting earlier this season as Kenny suffered the loss. And in that first game, to make the story complete, Einstein hit a grand slam home run to win that game, 5-0.

To add to the turn of events, Einstein's no-hitter was in the opening of the first half of the league and yesterday's no-hit, no-run game tossed by Fair was in the opening game of the second half.

Fair struck out 14 batters and faced only 19 in the six-inning contest. Only one batter reached first base, on a walk in the fourth inning.

It was a pitchers' battle throughout the game until Kenny blasted his home run, only the third hit off Einstein.

Kenny and Mike are two of eight Independent-Journal carriers who were taken by Julian Leone, I-J circulation manager, to Phoenix, Ariz., to watch the San Francisco Giants at spring training.

Lehigh University this fall will play the same teams it met in 1961 in football. The Engineers compiled a 7-2 record, losing only to Delaware and Rutgers.

Grid-Diamond Star Lucas Is Marin College's Top Athlete

The award was made by Director of Athletics Harry Pieper during the college's installation and awards assembly.

Lucas played end at Marin and for two years was named on the All-Golden Valley Conference squad. He also has been a standout centerfielder for the past two baseball seasons.

Lucas is majoring in teaching and plans to enroll at San Francisco State College in September.

Also yesterday 54 Block M awards were presented to Marin athletes in baseball, basketball, track, golf and tennis.

Baseball—Tom Basile, Dennis Becker, Kenneth Becker, Bill Buffalow, Monte Fitts, Russ Honeyman, Charles Johnson, Robert Jordon, Jim Lucas, Dave Perlis, Bob Scoville, Bob Silvey, Jerry Smith, Ron Stirling, John Taylor and Mike Walsh.

Basketball—Richard Abbott, Peter Bardea, Richard Brown, Stephen Bryant, Charles Bullock, Brad Busch, Robert Hamann, William Hodgson, Mike Kavanagh, John Larson, Robert Nehls, David Neumann, Randy Petrini, David Scott and James Wylie.

Tennis—Mike Calder, Dan Fisher, Eric Grissel, John Larson, Fred Savage, Bob Schultz and James Willwerth.

New Look For Tiburon Ball Club; Marin Runners Hit A Gold Mine

The county's oldest semi-pro club will sport brand new uniforms and a new co-manager in Bob Wyman, replacing Charley Locati who's bowing out after several years at the helm. The veteran Eddie Vigno Sr. will stay on as co-manager.

The Pelicans usually start much earlier than this but a bad winter put their Judge Field under water and required plenty of repair work.

Some of the veterans expected to return to the Tiburon lineup include Frank "Ziggy" DeSouza, Buzz Wensloff, Ed Vigno Jr., Bob Sapp, Mike Wyman and Fred DeMartini.

DeMartini, a lefty hurler who like Old Man River keeps rolling along, first pitched for Tiburon back in 1947. Speaking of rubber arms, he has one.

Incidentally, Elmer Rieger will be the Pelicans' "business manager" this season—meaning he's the poor guy assigned to the thankless task of "putting the financial bite" on local merchants.

SAN ANSELMO'S Vince Pallavicini, an outfielder recently released by the Detroit Tigers farm chain, underwent surgery at Ross Hospital last week and is reportedly doing fine.

LARKSPUR'S Ron Blum, an infielder getting his second chance at pro ball with the Chicago Cubs' Class A team at St. Cloud, Minn., has been in a bad slump lately. He's been dropped to number 8 position in the batting order and removed for pinch hitters quite frequently—a bad sign.

Blum had a brief fling with the Pittsburgh Pirate farm system last year but was released.

Pro ball is no picnic.

JIM IMPERIALE, coach of Marin Athletic Club distance running team, is building a special room for the club's trophies, but notes gleefully: "If these runners of ours keep winning all this 'gold' I'll have to pitch a tent in my back yard."

The Marin A.C. picked up a bundle of more loot in San Francisco competition over the weekend and already Imperiale's new showroom is bulging at the seams. The season is still young, too.

LOCAL PREP track fans are looking forward to a top-notch season in Marin next spring. Some of the headline makers in recent meets returning next season are Tam's Ellis Williams, San Rafael's Bob Olson, Redwood's Tom Strathairn and Drake's Dean Lazzarini, to mention just a few.

REDWOOD HIGH'S senior miler Randy Keller will enter U. of Washington next fall, where he hopes to continue his promising track career.

MAJOR LEAGUE scouts bird dogging the first annual Redwood Invitational High School tournament in San Rafael last weekend told Director Al Endriss that about 10 of the 20 outstanding prospects in Northern California participated in his tourney.

But the scouts won't divulge names of their favorite prospects until they have 'em signed and sealed for fear some other club will snatch 'em.

MARIN fans who followed the recent San Rafael Semi-Pro Invitational Tournament will remember a catcher-outfielder named Walt Williams, who played for the Gino Benedetti team.

Well, Williams signed a contract with the Houston Colt .45s and in his first two weeks with the Modesto club in the State League batted a resounding .538.

JOE ANSELMO has strengthened his Billings-Hutchison Builders ball club by adding infielder Jess Jacinto, first sacker-outfielder Art Quinn and catcher Roy Giusti to the roster.

Jacinto is a former Pacific Coast Leaguer; Quinn played for USF and Giusti is just home from U. of Arizona where as a sophomore he batted a healthy .328 this spring.

The Builders are still hoping for big things in the California State Semi-Pro Tourney even though they lost their opener last Sunday.

Terra Linda Athletes To Be Honored

Terra Linda High School will honor its spring sports athletes tomorrow night at an awards assembly in the school gymnasium starting at 7:30 o'clock.

One of the evening's highlights will be selection of the school's "Outstanding Senior Athlete." This is Terra Linda's first graduating class and first such award. The recipient's name will not be revealed until tomorrow night.

Also, block awards will be presented to spring sports participants.

Guest speaker of the evening will be Dick Read, head football coach at College of Marin. Also, Bill O'Bayley, who will become Terra Linda athletic director starting next fall, and the school's present athletic staff will be introduced.

Following presentation of awards dessert will be served in the school cafeteria. Athletes of both spring and fall sports and their parents are invited to attend.

Mill Valley Woman Knew U.S. First, Now A Citizen

By ROBERT M. COPPOCK

Sandra Millikin felt pretty much at home when she first arrived in the United States in 1958.

After all, she has worked eight years in U.S. Army offices in Austria and then became branch manager of an American insurance company.

Therefore, she spoke English with almost no accent when she met civil engineer Norris Millikin, her future husband, as he was touring Europe.

Geerman-born, Mrs. Millikin has now made the complete transposition from one culture and language to another, and is one of the newest United States citizens living in Marin County.

The Millikins met in 1956 and married six weeks later. He got a job and the couple stayed in Europe two years, coming to the United States after a tour of the Mediterranean countries.

Mrs. Millikin is a secretary at Baugh Electric Co., San Rafael, and sells and teaches the use of a knitting machine at her home as a sideline. She does some custom knitting in her "spare" time.

When the Millikins came to the United States, they brought Mrs. Millikin's mother, Mrs. Alexandra Sangl.

Mrs. Sangl expects to also become a United States citizen.

Mrs. Millikin said that except for some friendships lost in the move, leaving Austria was not painful for her. She left behind many unhappy memories.

She was born in Dresden, Germany, she grew up in Berlin, but moved with her mother to Austria after the Nazis killed her father.

Memories aside, she finds the United States, and especially Marin County, a better home. "This area is gorgeous," she says. "It's the place I want to live."

NEW CITIZEN FROM GERMANY—Mrs. Sandra Millikin sits before the knitting machine she uses to make many of her own clothes and for which she has a local dealership. Recently sworn in as a new citizen, she and her husband, Norris Millikin, are saving money for a second tour of Europe. (Independent-Journal photo)

White collar workers in 1910 comprised only 22 per cent of the total labor force compared with 42 per cent in 1960, according to the Labor Department.

Homecoming Chairman

Edna Maguire School Sets Graduation

The graduating class of Edna Maguire School in Mill Valley is presenting its five and one-half sets of twins in Shakespeare's "Comedy of Errors" today and tomorrow.

Featured players are Peggy and Penny Steinhoff as Adriana and Luciana and David and Dennis Tribble as Antipholus of Syracuse and Ephesus. Other twins are Joe and John Poisson; Bonnie and Steve Kompf, Lee and Mike Heller. Robert Grant is appearing, too, but his twin brother, Richard, is not.

Forty eighth graders are involved in the show, the first graduation play to be presented at Edna Maguire. There was one performance today for the student body. A second will be at 8 p.m. tomorrow to which the public is invited.

Sets were built and painted under direction of Don Hunter who was assisted by Mark Collin. Ken Lehrer is stage manager, assisted by Linda Cook. Lighting was especially designed by Dave Gealey and Al Malone.

Sanitary District Contract On Tap

A much-disputed proposed contract with Ross Valley Sanitary District, the fiscal 1964 budget, and a proposed personnel code are due for discussion by the Larkspur city council at 8 p.m. today in city hall.

T. F. Ormond will appeal planning commission rejection of his application for a variance to add two units to a three-unit apartment house at 10 Frances Avenue.

The council will consider a policy for widening streets and may name someone to fill a vacancy on the park and recreation commission.

Larkspur Schools Plan Graduations

Three schools of Larkspur School Disrict will hold simultaneous eighth grade graduation programs at 8 p.m. on June 12.

Neil Cummins School will graduate a class of 121 in ceremonies at the Corte Madera Recreation Center. Larkspur-Corte Madera School will have 52 graduates, with its program in the San Clemente School's multi-use room. Henry C. Hall School will graduate 25 at its own multi-use room.

Valedictorians will be:

At Neil Cummins: Imogen Billings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Billings of 1015 Meadowsweet Drive, Corte Madera. She will receive a medal from F. M. Fugate, past commander of Twin Cities Post 313 of the American Legion.

At Larkspur-Corte Madera: Susan Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Clark of 66 Elm Avenue, Larkspur. The Legion medal will be presented to her by Kenneth Chaney, also a past commander.

At Hall: Christine Gondak, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gondak of 6 Stanford Court, Larkspur. She will be presented the Legion medal by Oakley Dexter, another past commander.

Program at Neil Cummins School will open with Scott McClintock of Boy Scout Troop 24 leading the salute to the flag. Supt. Milton S. Cohen will give the welcoming address. Principal Catherine Burch will introduce salutatorian Mary Elliott and historian Carole Benson.

Marjorie Whittlesey will accompany singing of the class song. After the valedictory, trustee Curtis P. Kamai will present diplomas. Invocation and benediction will be by Rev. Joseph S. Doran of Christ Episcopal Church, Sausalito.

Dancing until midnight in the school's multi-purpose room will follow the exercises.

At Larkspur-Corte Madera School, Patrick Menestier of Boy Scout Troop 3, Corte Madera, will lead the flag salute, followed by invocation by Rev. Gerald W. Garlid of Marin Lutheran Church.

Principal Gilbert Slusher will give the welcoming address and introduce the salutatorian, Christine van Wart. After the class song and valedictory, Mrs. Pauline Secor, chairman of the board of trustees, will present diplomas. Rev. Garlid will pronounce benediction. Dancing until midnight will follow.

Hall School's program will be opened by the flag salute led by Stephen Giovannoni of Boy Scout Troop 3. Rev. Michael Barkowska of Calvary Baptist Church, Larkspur, will offer the invocation.

Principal Mervin Gootherts will give the welcoming address and introduce salutatorian Barry Stockwell and historian Linda Kaplan.

Rosalind Chan will accompany singing of the class song. The valedictory will be followed by presentation of diplomas by trustee John R. Cunningham, and benediction by Rev. Barkowska.

Pharmacist Job Set Up To Meet Demand By State

Marin County supervisors yesterday approved creation of a part-time pharmacist post in the county medical office as a temporary and stopgap means of meeting technical state requirements.

Of the county counsel's view that the state rules would not stand up in court, Supervisor Peter Behr—himself an attorney—smilingly remarked that "anything is cheaper than going to court."

Actual authorization was merely for outlay of $220 to get the new system rolling during June, with possibility of $63 monthly cost thereafter. But administrator Alan Bruce reported negotiations with Marin General Hospital may result in a new plan by which the county could obtain medicines through the hospital district and use services of the hospital's pharmacist.

Concert Season Opener Named

Dorothy Warenskjold, lyric soprano, will open the Marin Music Chest summer concert season at Forest Meadows, Dominican College, San Rafael, at 3 p.m. June 23.

The appearance will be a return engagement of the opera star who received her musical training in and around San Francisco.

The series also will present a recital by Igor Gorin, July 28, pianists Jose and Amparo Iturbi, Aug. 25 and Lola Montes and her Spanish dancers, Sept. 15.

Six Venereal Cases Reported In County

Four cases of syphilis and two of gonorrhea were reported in Marin County last week, an unusually high venereal disease incidence, according to the Marin County Health Department.

The weekly report of communicable diseases also showed 23 cases of mumps, with eight cases each in San Rafael and Novato, and 22 cases of streptococcic infections, with seven in San Rafael. There was one case of tuberculosis and 11 of measles.

Now Bake Your Bread—Outdoors

SUMMERTIME just naturally suggests that we eat outdoors as often as possible whether it be a family affair or a special occasion. The aroma of food cooking outdoors has that unique special appeal welcomed by all. The busy homemaker, in particular, welcomes the meal that is cooked outdoors because the preparation is more simple and all members of the family enjoy helping. Now in the markets is a new and modern, up-to-date, Ready-To-Bake Frozen Bread Dough which can be baked indoors or on the barbecue.

Until recently bread was not among the foods to be baked outdoors. Bread was often reheated but almost never freshly baked. Perhaps the reason being that making bread was too long and complicated a process—particularly in summer. With the NEW modern, Ready-To-Bake Frozen Bread Dough now available this is all changed. It is now easy to serve home baked bread, whether it be baked indoors, according to directions on the package, or on the barbecue as shown. Impress your guests with the aroma of bread baking over charcoal. It's so easy! Here's how:

FRESH BREAD BAKED OUTDOORS

1 loaf (1 lb.) Ready-To-Bake Frozen Bread Dough
Melted Butter, Shortening or cooking oil
Aluminum foil hood made from sheet of heavy duty foil 28-in. long and 18-in. wide.

Brush or spread frozen loaf well with melted butter, shortening or cooking oil. Place in a well greased 4½-in. x 8½-in. metal bread pan. Let frozen loaf of bread thaw and rise according to simple directions on package. Bread should rise to the top of the pan on edges and higher in the center.

USING heavy duty foil, make a hood for loaf: Tear off sheet of foil 28-in. long (heavy duty foil will be 18-in. wide). Fold 28-in. length in half to make a double thick of foil 14-in. x 18-in. Fold ends of 14-in. sides about 2 inches from edge to form feet to hold up hood, which fits over loaf, as shown in photograph.

Adjust outdoor barbecue so grill is at highest position above coals (4-in. to 6-in.). Coals should be evenly distributed beneath loaf and burned down for best results. Place raised loaf on grill with hood over it (14-in. side parallel to 8½-in. length of pan, with ends of hood open as shown). Rotate or turn loaf if necessary over coals for even distribution of heat. Let bake until loaf is lightly browned and done. The length of time will vary from 30 minutes to 1 hour depending on the temperature of the coals and the amount of wind. The longer baking time over slow burning coals with grill as far away from coals as possible produces the best loaf. Loaf will be light on top, with 3 bottom sides slightly darker —the texture and flavor just wonderful! You'll be the talk of the neighborhood! Make sandwiches or serve this mouthwatering, freshly baked bread with barbecued meat, a tossed salad, potato chips and beverage.

Children and adults alike will be thrilled with these Hot Dog Thrillers.

HOT DOG THRILLERS

1 loaf (1 lb.) White or Honey Wheat Ready-To-Bake Frozen Bread Dough, softened.
8 wieners (about 1 lb.)
Chopped onion or pickle relish
Mustard or ketchup

ROLL softened dough into a rectangle 10-in. x 16-in. Cut into 8 rectagles each 4-in. x 5-in. Place a wiener on each rectangle. Put 1 teaspoon onion or pickle relish and 1 teaspoon mustard or ketchup on each frank. Brush edges of bread dough with water. Pinch and seal edges well around each frank. Place sealed edge down on a greased cookie sheet. Brush or spread hot dog thrillers well with melted butter, shortening or salad oil. Up to this point Hot Dog Thrillers can be made ahead of time and refrigerated as long as 12 hours until ready to let rise and bake. Refrigeration slows down the action of the yeast. Just be sure the surface is kept moist with shortening or oil. When ready to bake, remove from refrigerator; let come to room temperature and rise in a very warm place until tripled in size (about 45 minutes. Bake at 350 degrees 20 to 25 minutes. Serve hot.

TO TAKE HOT DOG THRILLERS OUTDOORS

Make as above and let rise.

CAREFULLY lift from cookie sheet and place on grill (grill should be as high above coals as possible with coals well burned down). Brown on one side. Using 2 large forks or turner and fork, carefully turn and brown on other side. Time will vary according to temperature of coals; however, these are best if done over very low burning coals (about 10 minutes on each side). Serve at once.

Cheese Asparagus Salad Is One That's Different

"Different" salad recipes are hard to come by. But here's one you may never have tried.

To have this salad at its best, choose a fine-flavored Parmesan cheese and do exactly as the recipe directs — add half of it just before serving.

SNOWFLAKE SALAD

Boiling water
1¼ teaspoons salt
½ teaspoon sugar
¼ cup olive oil
2 tbsp. wine vinegar
⅛ tsp. white pepper
4 tbsp. grated Parmesan cheese
Salad greens

Break off tough ends of asparagus; with swivel-blade vegetable peeler, remove outer covering from stalks up to buds. Wash thoroughly. Cut into diagonal slices between ¼ and ½ inch thick, leaving 1½ to 2 inch tips. Place in a medium saucepan with ½-inch boiling water, ½ teaspoon of the salt and the sugar. Cover, bring to boiling point and cook about 5 minutes or until asparagus is just tender-crisp. Drain if necessary; cool.

With a fork beat together the oil, vinegar, remaining ¾ teaspoon salt, pepper and 2 tablespoons of the cheese; add asparagus, cover and chill. At serving time, arrange asparagus on salad greens and sprinkle with remaining 2 tablespoons cheese. Make 6 servings. (AP)

Frozen Vegetables Make Quick Meal

Steamed Rice Bread Tray
Cottage Chees and Peach Salad

JIGTIME GREEN PEAS AND DRIED BEEF

¾ cup milk
½ to 1 teaspoon curry powder, if desired
1 jar (about 5 ounces) dried beef
1 or 2 tablespoons butter or margarine

Place contents of package of peas in a saucepan with the milk. Cover and over medium heat bring just to a boil. Remove from heat and stir until sauce is smooth. Add curry powder, if used, and stir until blended with sauce. Meanwhile rinse dried beef with hot water; drain well. Heat butter in a 9- or 10-inch skillet; add beef and cook quickly, turning, until slightly crisp. Serve peas with beef. Makes 3 servings.

Lime Fruit Mold Three-Way Winner

Jellied June Jubilee is three-way winner as wedding or graduation fete salad, dessert or first course delight. This truly different lime fruit mold a la Escoffier, the famed father of French cuisine, calls for the following:

2¾ cups cold water, divided
½ cup sugar
½ cup sweetened lime juice
2 cups diced cantaloupe
1 cup fresh blueberries

SPRINKLE gelantine on one cup of water in a 2½ quart saucepan to soften. Place over moderate heat, stirring constantly, until gelatine is dissolved—about three minutes. Remove from heat; stir in sugar, remaining 1¾ cups water and Rose's sweetened lime juice. Chill until mixture is the consistency of unbeaten egg white. Fold in fresh fruit. Turn into five-cup mold or eight individual molds. Chill until firm. Unmold to serve. Serve with cottage cheese as a salad or plain as a first course or dessert.

Yield: 8 servings.

(Note: If desired, three cups diced, fresh fruit or berries may be substituted for cantaloupe and/or blueberries.)

Fish Trims

Want that fish to look and taste good? Serve fillets (broiler or fried) with creamed potatoes sprinkled with paprika, lemon-buttered broccoli and sliced pickled beets nestling on small lettuce leaves. Be sure to add twists of lemon to the fish.

Keep Picnic Food Cool For Health

CHICAGO (UPI)—An inexpensive cooler is a picnicker's best insurance against food spoilage, says the American Institute of Baking (AIB).

Few protein foods are travel-safe without refrigeration, an AIB spokesman added. Those that are include jams, jellies, preserves and certain types of cheese, but not cottage or cream cheese. Both smoked thuringer and hard salami sandwiches with mustard butter travel well.

All other protein foods should be well-chilled when you start, and kept that way in an insulated bag or cooler until mealtime.

If you lack a cooler, the AIB suggests these four sandwich filling recipes that stand up without refrigeration for an extended period.

—FOR ALMOND apple butter, gradually stir ¼ cup of butter or margarine, melted, into ½ cup of apple butter until well blended. Add ¼ cup of sliced blanched almonds. Makes ¾ cup, enough for 4 sandwiches.

—A TANGY FILLING is made by blending ¼ cup of soft butter or margarine with 1 teaspoon of prepared mustard, ¼ cup of creamy style french dressing, 8 slices of crisp bacon, crumbled, and 1¼ cups of chopped celery. Makes 1¼ cups, for 7 sandwiches.

—CRUNCHY FILLING is a mixture of ¼ cup each of chopped salted peanuts, chili sauce, chopped celery and 1 (5 ounce) jar of sharp cheese spread.

—FOR NIPPY cheese filling, blend well together 1 cup (4 ounces) of grated American cheese, 2 tablespoons each of chopped pimiento, chopped ripe olives and chopped green onions, and 1 tablespoon of creamy french dressing. Makes 1 cup, or 5 sandwiches.

Biscuits May Steal The Show

WHEAT GERM DROP BISCUITS

2 cups biscuit mix (bought or homemade
⅓ cup wheat germ
½ to ¾ cup milk

Stir together biscuit mix and wheat germ. With a fork stir in enough milk to make mixture a little softer than regular biscuit dough. Drop into greased small muffin pans filling cups almost to top. Bake in a hot (425 degrees) oven 10 to 12 minutes or until lightly browned. If muffin-pan cups each hold 2 tablespoons, recipe will make 18 biscuits.

Club To Fete Founders At Anniversary Party

Two of the original founders and many past presidents of the Mill Valley Tennis Club will be honored Saturday when members celebrate the club's 35th anniversary with a costume party of the 1928 era.

BEFORE THE celebration a 1932 Cadillac and 1933 Brewster, both belonging to the John Ritchies of San Francisco, will spin around Mill Valley calling for Mrs. Stewart Bostwick and Mrs. Charles Claudius, widows of the original founders. Stops will also be made for the former presidents who will dine at a special honor table.

INVITATIONS designed by the John Manns, social chairmen, have been received for the cocktails, dinner and dance event. Heading the decorations committee are the Jack Keelers, who will be assisted by the James Stitts and Charles Guichards.

Others working on the party are Mesdames Francis Walsh and Ian Tucker, reservations; Messrs. James Walker and and James McManus, gatekeepers; the Paul Limonts and Mrs. James McManus, house chairmen; Mrs. Peter Bogardus, mailing; and Mrs. Ervin Vickers, publicity.

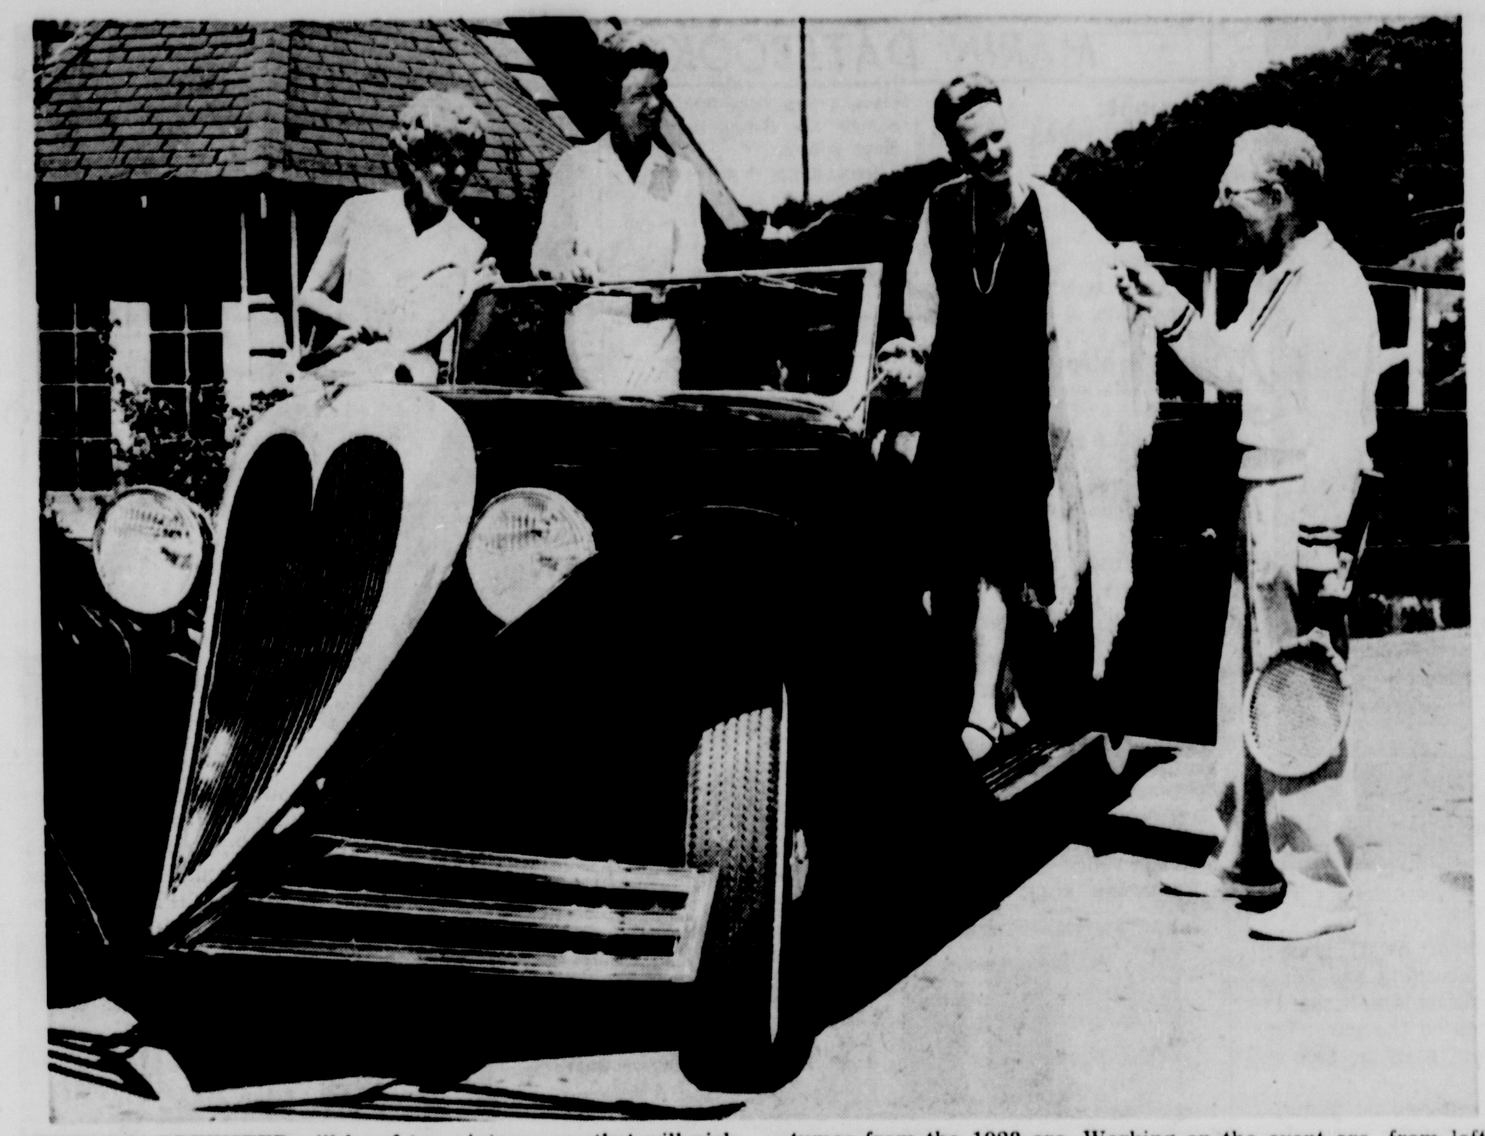
ORIGINATOR of the swim and recquet clubs in the Bay Area, the club was started because there were more players and devotees of the game than there were courts in Mill Valley. A group of friends, Charles Claudius, Thomas Nelson, Stewart Bostwick and Marvin Curtis decided to build a court adjoining that of their friend, Dr. Samuel Weiss.

In a year's time 27 friends had formed the nucleus of the club, and three courts were built. The fourth club court was added in 1930. Inter-club matches were started, Marin County tennis championships held, and the first exhibition matches were brought into the county.

HELEN WILLS MOODY, Frank Kovacs, Donald Budge, Margaret Osborne DuPont and Virginia Wolfenden Kovacs were some of the notables who played.

Still a very popular event in West Coast tennis circles is the annual Marin Invitational Tournament. This year it is scheduled for October.

Carrying on despite the depression and war years, the club added swimming and wading pools in 1948, and membership is now over 200. Robert Hill is serving as the club's 22nd president.



THIS 1934 BREWSTER will be of two vintage cars that will pick up widows of the two founders and a number of past president of the Mill Valley Tennis Club for the 35th anniversary costume dance on Saturday night at the clubhouse. Members will wear costumes from the 1928 era. Working on the event are, from left, Mesdames Jack Keeler, I. N. Tucker and Mrs. John Alan Mann, general chairman, who along with Sam Johnson is all dressed for the dance. (Independent-Journal photo by Bob Hax)

MARIN'S SOCIAL WHIRL

Mrs. James Leach To Fete Wendy Wilkins At Luncheon

By FLORENCE DONNELLY

Honoring Wendy Wilkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hepburn Wilkins of Ross, her grandmother, Mrs. James Leach, will be hostess at a graduation luncheon June 15 at Peacock Gap Golf and Country Club. Wendy, who is in the graduating class at Redwood High School, will enter Stephens College, Columbia, Mo., in the fall.

Wendy will make her debut at the Marin Ball at Peacock Gap Dec. 21. Several parties are being given for her and other debutantes before she leaves for college and after she returns for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald McLenman of San Rafael sailed on the Matsonia Monday for a vacation in Hawaii.

MR. AND MRS. DON STERNLOFF of the Belvedere Lagoon, are entertaining his cousin, Mrs. Allan Mitchell of New Canaan, Connecticut, for several days. Mrs. Mitchell is also visiting her daughter, Pamela, a student at Stanford University.

The Sternloff boys are both away. Pete was recently graduated from the University of California at Santa Barbara, and Michael is attending Cabrillo Junior College in Aptos.

MR. AND MRS. FRED T. BECKLEY have sold their home in Belvedere Gardens and are moving to New York because of a business promotion. Fred, who was born in San Anselmo, has lived all of his life in Marin. The Beckleys, who have lived in Tiburon 13 years, have two daughters, Nancy, who attends Redwood High Schol and Heidi, a pupil at Bel Aire School. On their way to New York the Beckley family will visit Mrs. Beckley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Dunn of Boulder, Colo., and their son, Paul J. Dunn of Calgary, Colo., and his family will also come to Boulder for the family reunion.

MRS. R. JERROLD HOOPER of Sausalito has returned from a visit with Mrs. Max E. Hauser, daughter, Marilyn, and her family in New York. Mr. and Mrs. Hauser and their son, Eric, and daughter, Andrea, live in Woodstock.

A GROUP OF MARIN women drove to El Cerrito Monday to have luncheon at the home of Mrs. C. E. Van Brugghen. They were members of the Captain Cook Chapter of the Daughters of the British Empire.

Attending were Mesdames Ralph Elliott and Frank E. Beatty of Belvedere, V. H. Barry Jr. of Kentfield and Laurence M. Symmes Jr. and Leslie Wellington of Mill Valley, and the latter's house guest, her sister-in-law, Mrs. George Wellington of Aylesbury, England.

The Wellingtons have come to Mill Valley to reside there permanently.

PEACOCK GAY GOLF and Country Club was the locale for a delightful luncheon I attended Friday given by Mrs. Chester Pagelow of San Rafael. The hostess and the other guests are members of the San Francisco Junior Auxiliary to the Stanford Junior Auxiliary to the Sanford Convalescent Home. Each year the auxiliary gives a fabulous jewel ball to aid the convalescent home. Other guests at the luncheon were Mrs. H. Bruce Bernhard of Loch Lomond, San Rafael, a past president, her sister, Mrs. George S. Youngling of San Francisco, the new vice president, Mrs. Wade McCoy of San Francisco, the president, and Mrs. Leland A. Mlejnek of San Francisco, treasurer. Claire Pagelow, Marin publicity chairman, is not only a valuable member of the auxiliary but of San Rafael. She has her own printing press and gives her time and skill as a volunteer, to making programs and other material for youth groups. I'm awaiting a visit to her home and her "press room" Saturday. The Bagelows moved from St. Francis Wood, San Francisco to the Country Club Tract in San Rafael a year ago.

Guatemalan Progress Will Be AAUW Topic

An evening devoted to study of the alliance for progress in Guatemala is planned by the International Relations study group of the Mill Valley Branch of the American Assn. of University Women.

It will be held Friday at 8 p.m. in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Rosenthal. Husbands and guests of group members have been invited.

The program is an outgrowth of the Rosenthal's visit to Guatemala last fall. Rosenthal's family lived there for over 50 years after emigrating from Germany, and his mother was born and reared there.

Shortly after returning to Mill Valley the Rosenthals received an extensive letter from an employe of the U. S. State Department in Guatemala City. It contained information on alliance for progress monies being spent in the country on housing, public health and sanitation and transportation.

Reports on projects described in the letter will be given by study group members including Mesdames Ronald Burnett, Viking Leon, Ross A. Smith and Russell E. Wallace. The reports will provide a comparison with one on the Mexican situation given recently by Mrs. Leon, which she repeated for a Triple C Club study group meeting.

Rosenthal will also show colored slides of small Guatemalan villages and the larger towns.

Chairman Mrs. J. P. Malich reports that plans will be made for continuing study of Latin America through the summer.

ROUND OF PARTIES FOR BRIDE-ELECT

Next in the round of parties being given to honor bride-elect Judith Nelden Erskine of Sausalito will be a linen shower Saturday at the Sausalito home of Mrs. Alan Scurfield and a dessert-coffee on June 26 in the Kent Woodlands home of Mrs. Edward L. Superka.

Judy will be married to Trulen Francis Karnes Jr. on July 13.

Co-hostess with Mrs. Scurfield Saturday from 3 to 5 p.m. will be Mrs. John Terence Ward of Sausalito.

Co-hostess with Mrs. Superka for the 12:30 p.m. dessert-coffee on June 26 will be Mrs. George R. Chapman of Sausalito. Some 30 guests have been invited.

Deb Parties Opening Summer Season

This year's debutantes are putting their summer wardrobes in order as the round of teas, luncheons, swim parties and suppers that constitute the summer season begins this week in Marin.

On Saturday afternoon the first party will be given—a luncheon honoring Victoria Furst at the Meadow Club, with her mother, Mrs. Victors Furst of Ross, as the hostess.

OTHER PARTY dates announced include the tea June 17 given by the Debutante Ball Committee to introduce the debs to one another and to the committee members. The girls' mothers also will be special guests at the party, which will be given at the home of Mrs. Joseph Hickingbotham Jr. in San Rafael.

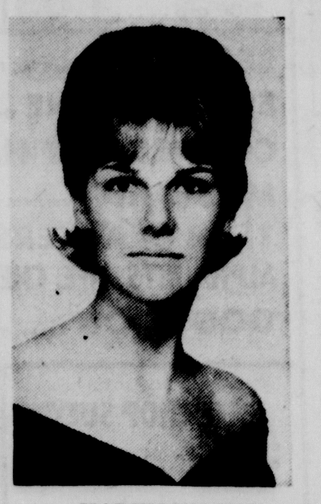
Mrs. Norman B. Livermore of Ross and Mrs. Thomas Kent of Kent Woodlands will pour tea, and Mrs. Wallace Scott of Belvedere and Mrs. Frank C. Stratford of Ross, last year's ball chairmen, will receive guests.

ANN LONGFELLOW
To Be Luncheon Guest

ON JUNE 18 the Meadow Club again will be the scene of a debutante luncheon, with Ann Longfellow the honoree. Hostesses will be Mrs. Floyd Gilman of Ross and her daughter Charlotte Gilman, a 1962 deb.

KATIE O'NEILL
Two Parties Planned

A SUPPER AND swimming party has been planned on June 29, honoring Katherine O'Neill. This informal gathering will be given by Mrs. Joseph Bowman and Mrs. Trevor Hoy. Then, on Aug. 15 Katie will be honored at a tea given by her mother, Mrs. John S. O'Neill and by her aunt, Mrs. John C. Munson at the O'Neill home in San Rafael.



KAREN WATTS
A Tea Dance Date

THE CLOSING WEEKS of August finds the parties scheduled back-to-back before the girls begin their college year. On Aug. 22 a tea dance honoring Karen Watts will be given by Mrs. W. A. Hamshaw and by her mother, Mrs. Donald Watts of Greenbrae. The Francisca Club in San Francisco will be the setting for this gathering.

THE FOLLOWING day, Aug. 23, Wendy Wilkins and Heidi Hoxie will be the honored guests at a tea dance, this one at the Lagunitas Club in Ross. Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wilkins and Mr. and Mrs. William Hoxie of Ross, will be the hosts.

THE NEXT DAY Beryl Knauth, whose sister, Natalie, made her bow last year, will be honored at a reception given by her mother, Mrs. Basil Knauth of Belvedere.

AUG. 29 IS the date selected by Mrs. Jordan Martinelli and Mrs. Jordan Martinelli Jr. for a tea to honor Sue Enemark. The guests will gather at the senior Martinelli's home in San Rafael.

AL FRESCO PARTY

New officers of the San Rafael Improvement Club were installed yesterday at the annual breakfast by Mrs. Paul Hammer, head of the President Assembly. The breakfast was preceded by a party on the lawn beside the clubhouse. Pictured there were three of the 1963-64 staff, from left, Mrs. Marvin Hoy, first vice president; Mrs. Robert Swart, president, and Mrs. Walton Rains, recording and corresponding secretary. At the breakfast Mrs. Richard Hardin, retiring president, presented the gavel to Mrs. Swart, and the new president gave the club's present to Mrs. Hardin.

Waistline Up

The waistline is up in summer styling. Seamings and shirrings under the bustline and softly tied belts are used by several designers.

Look For Men

New French Pet

An innovation from France: Fashion's newest pet, the vest, in a red Helanca version buttoned over trim black Helanca boy shorts.

YOUR HOUSEHOLD

Bridal Linens Can Be Kept Bright With 10 Wash Tips

Now that you've got all those nice new sheets, pillow cases, towels and tablecloths, you'll want to keep them looking lovely and fresh. And you can, if you care for them properly.

Plain white linens aren't much of a problem, but gay colors and patterns and new fabric blends are something else. Here are 10 tips to help the bride keep those linens looking like new through many months of use:

1. Always launder matching sets—tablecloths and napkins, towels and washcloths, sheets and pillow cases—under the same conditions.

2. Pretreat spots and stains promptly before they have a chance to set.

3. Use an oxygen bleach regularly on brightly colored linens to keep them attractively bright. Chlorine based bleaches can be used for your white or pastel linens.

4. Pastel towels and linens take kindly to a warm wash. Drying in your automatic dryer will help them keep their true color (no sun fading).

5. Warm or hot water can fade brightly colored items, so launder these in cold water at regular agitation and spin speed.

6. White cottons or linens show soil quickly, so wash frequently in hot water (at least 140 degrees).

7. A fabric conditioner in the final rinse will keep your towels soft and fluffy. Use only the recommended amount or absorbency may be decreased.

8. Table linens should be removed from the dryer while still damp.

9. Many tablecloths are treated with stain resistant finishes. These require no special care other than ironing or dryer drying. The heat of ironing or dryer drying restores the stain-resistant characteristics of these finishes.

10. To keep ironing at a minimum, experts advise removing all linens from the dryer promptly, then smooth and fold carefully.

Shirley Mae Ford Recites Vows With John D. Osborn

The First Baptist Church in San Rafael was the setting for the wedding May 25 of Shirley Mae Ford and John David Osborn of Fairfax. The Rev. Jerald H. Traeger officiated at the ceremony, for which the bride was given in marriage by her father.

Shirley, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ford of Fairfax, recited vows wearing a long sleeved gown of lace with the skirt ending in a chapel length train.

Diane Osborn was maid of honor and other attendants were Nikki Sorich, Laurie Osborn, Joyce Miller, and Jackie Whitcomb was the flower girl. They wore light blue satin dresses.

Ring bearer was Kenneth Lavin.

Best man for bridegroom was Robert Gius and the ushers were Fred Gius and Jermon Brendlin.

After the ceremony a reception was given at the church hall and the couple left on a wedding trip to the Santa Cruz mountains. They will live in Forest Knolls.

Both the bride and bridegroom attended Sir Francis Drake High School and the College of Marin. After completing military service the bridegroom will study forest management at Humboldt State College. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David S. Osborn of Fairfax.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN DOUGLAS SUACCI

Deanna Marie Basich Bride Of John D. Suacci Of Greenbrae

St. Patrick's Church in Larkspur was the setting for the recent wedding of Deanna Marie Basich of Corte Madera and John Douglas Suacci of Greenbrae.

Officiating for the nuptial mass were the Rev. James J. Healy.

Preceding the bride to the altar in gowns of yellow silk organza was the bride's sister, Patricia Suacci, as bridesmaid. Mary Ann Finn was flower girl and Stephen Suacci acted as ringbearer.

James Kilpatrick of Corte Madera served the bridegroom as best man. Ushering guests to their seats were Robert Dal Bon of San Rafael, Armond Suacci of San Francisco and Eugene Suacci of Santa Rosa.

The bride was graduated from Ursuline High School in Santa Rosa and attended the University of Texas. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Basich of San Francisco and Mrs. Mark Jurjervich of San Francisco and the late Mr. Jurpervich.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Paul Suacci of Greenbrae, was graduated from Redwood High School and is attending College of Marin. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Giorgi of San Francisco and Mrs. John B. Suacci of San Francisco and the late Mr. Suacci.

Nursery School Director To Climax Career Friday

Mrs. Katherine Baxter, director of the Corte Madera-Larkspur Cooperative Nursery School, is retiring on Friday after eight years with the school. She and her husband, Ernest, are moving to Cloverdale to enjoy their new home with fishing, gardening, loafing and exploring California as their main "occupations."

Mrs. Baxter's career in Marin includes four years with the Tamalpais Union High Adult Program as director of Nursery Schools in Marin City and, prior to her present assignment, Mill Valley.

Mrs. Baxter started her career with forestry in mind, being the first woman to receive a forestry degree from the University of California. She is the mother of two sons.

Larkspur Club To Install New Officers

The Larkspur Women's Club will install its officers for the coming year following its business meeting June 12 at the City Hall in Larkspur.

Mrs. Harold Myers will again serve as president.

Other officers serving are Mesdames George Marchant, first vice president; Olive Lidel, second vice president; Kay Gale, treasurer; Carlotta Thomas, corresponding secretary; H. C. Boyer, recording secretary; Jeretta Russell, auditor; E. W. Kerbs, historian; Albert Heston, parliamentarian.

Mrs. Paul Hammer, president of the Presidents Assembly of Marin, will be the installing officer. Tea will be served to initiate the silver services which were donated to the club by the members. Mrs. Olive Lidel is tea chairman.

Welcome Wagon Dessert Meet Planned June 11

The Marin Welcome Wagon Club will hold a dessert meeting on June 11 at 8 p.m., at Dominic's Restaurant, San Rafael.

Feature of the meeting will be a White Elephant sale with proceeds going to a charitable organization. Mesdames John Baker and Charles Russell are in charge of pick-up of items.

Mrs. Russell is in charge of reservations.

Stilt Revival

Warm-weather shifts are cut several inches above the knee to convert from beach dresses to casual tunic tops for pants or companions for long at-home skirts.

Non-Slip Servers

Tray and coasters are interlocked in a new non-slip serving set the manufacturer says ends heebie-jeebies stemming from carrying a tray full of filled glasses.

Breezy Hairdo

San Rafael Junior New Worthy Advisor

Carol Osborne, a junior at San Rafael High School, was installed as worthy advisor of San Rafael Assembly 195, International Order of Rainbow for Girls, on Saturday. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert T. Osborne of San Rafael.

Also installed into office with Carol were Lynne Honsinger, worthy associate advisor; Judy Parsons, charity; Genelle Steiger, hope; Vickie Kantner, faith; Cyndy Hunt, recorder; Chris Owen, treasurer; Jeanne Parsons, chaplain; Lynn Mossi, drill leader; Barbara Wallace, love; Pat Linville, religion; Deana Kirchner, nature; Wendy Parker, immortality; Diane Pharis, fidelity; Susan Burns, patriotism; Sally Hasse, service; Karen Berner, confidential observer; Shirleen Tripp, outer observer; Barbara Sink, musician; Judy Rink, choir director; Heidi Foster, banner bearer; and Cathy Harris, prompter.

Host for the evening was S. Myron Latarian, past master of Golden Gate Lodge 673 in San Francisco. Installing officers were Mrs. Margaret Scott, mother advisor; Barbara Travaglio, worthy advisor; Mrs. Loraine Reinmiller, honorary installing officer; Kathy Scott, retiring worthy advisor; Sue Olson, marshal; Jacquie Leonard, honorary marshal; Peggy Scott, chaplain; Marie Rundberg, recorder; Pat Troutman, tribute to American Flag; Mrs. Hazel Jones, musician; and Mrs. Mary Olson, soloist.

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

There Is No Rule Preventing You From Looking At Dummy

No law forces you to be equally blind; you are allowed to look at the dummy and profit by what you see there.

Opening lead — ♡ Q

When this hand was played, South ruffed the second heart and discovered the bad trump break on leading out the ace of trumps.

DISMAYED

South was not dismayed; he could easily pick up the trumps by getting to dummy and taking one finesse through East's jack of spades.

"But what will I do with my diamonds?" South thought to himself. "If I lead a diamond to the king and then draw all of the trumps, I will be left with at least one losing diamond."

And then South got an inspiration. He would ruff a diamond in dummy before drawing trumps.

WRONG ADDRESS

The trouble with this inspiration was that it had the wrong address. It was meant for a man three blocks away who was playing an entirely different hand.

In this case East over-ruffed the third round of diamonds and returned a club. South was down two before the horrible hand came to an end.

BAD BREAKS

After discovering the bad trump break, South cashes the top clubs, leads a diamond to dummy's king, and leads the queen of clubs from dummy. The idea is to continue clubs until East ruffs.

If East fails to ruff, South throws away his three low diamonds and then takes a trump finesse to win the rest in the South hand.

If East ruffs a club, South over-ruffs and draws the rest of East's trumps.

This leaves a trump in dummy, and South can cash the ace of diamonds and ruff a diamond to win the rest of the tricks in the North hand.

ALMANAC

Today is Wednesday, June 5, the 156th day of 1963 with 209 to follow.

The moon is approaching ful phase. The morning stars are Venus, Jupiter and Saturn. The evening star is Mars.

On this day in history:

In 1917, more than 9.5 million American men between the ages of 21 and 30 registered for the World War I draft.

In 1933, President Franklin D. Roosevelt signed a bill abolishing the gold standard.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X E is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

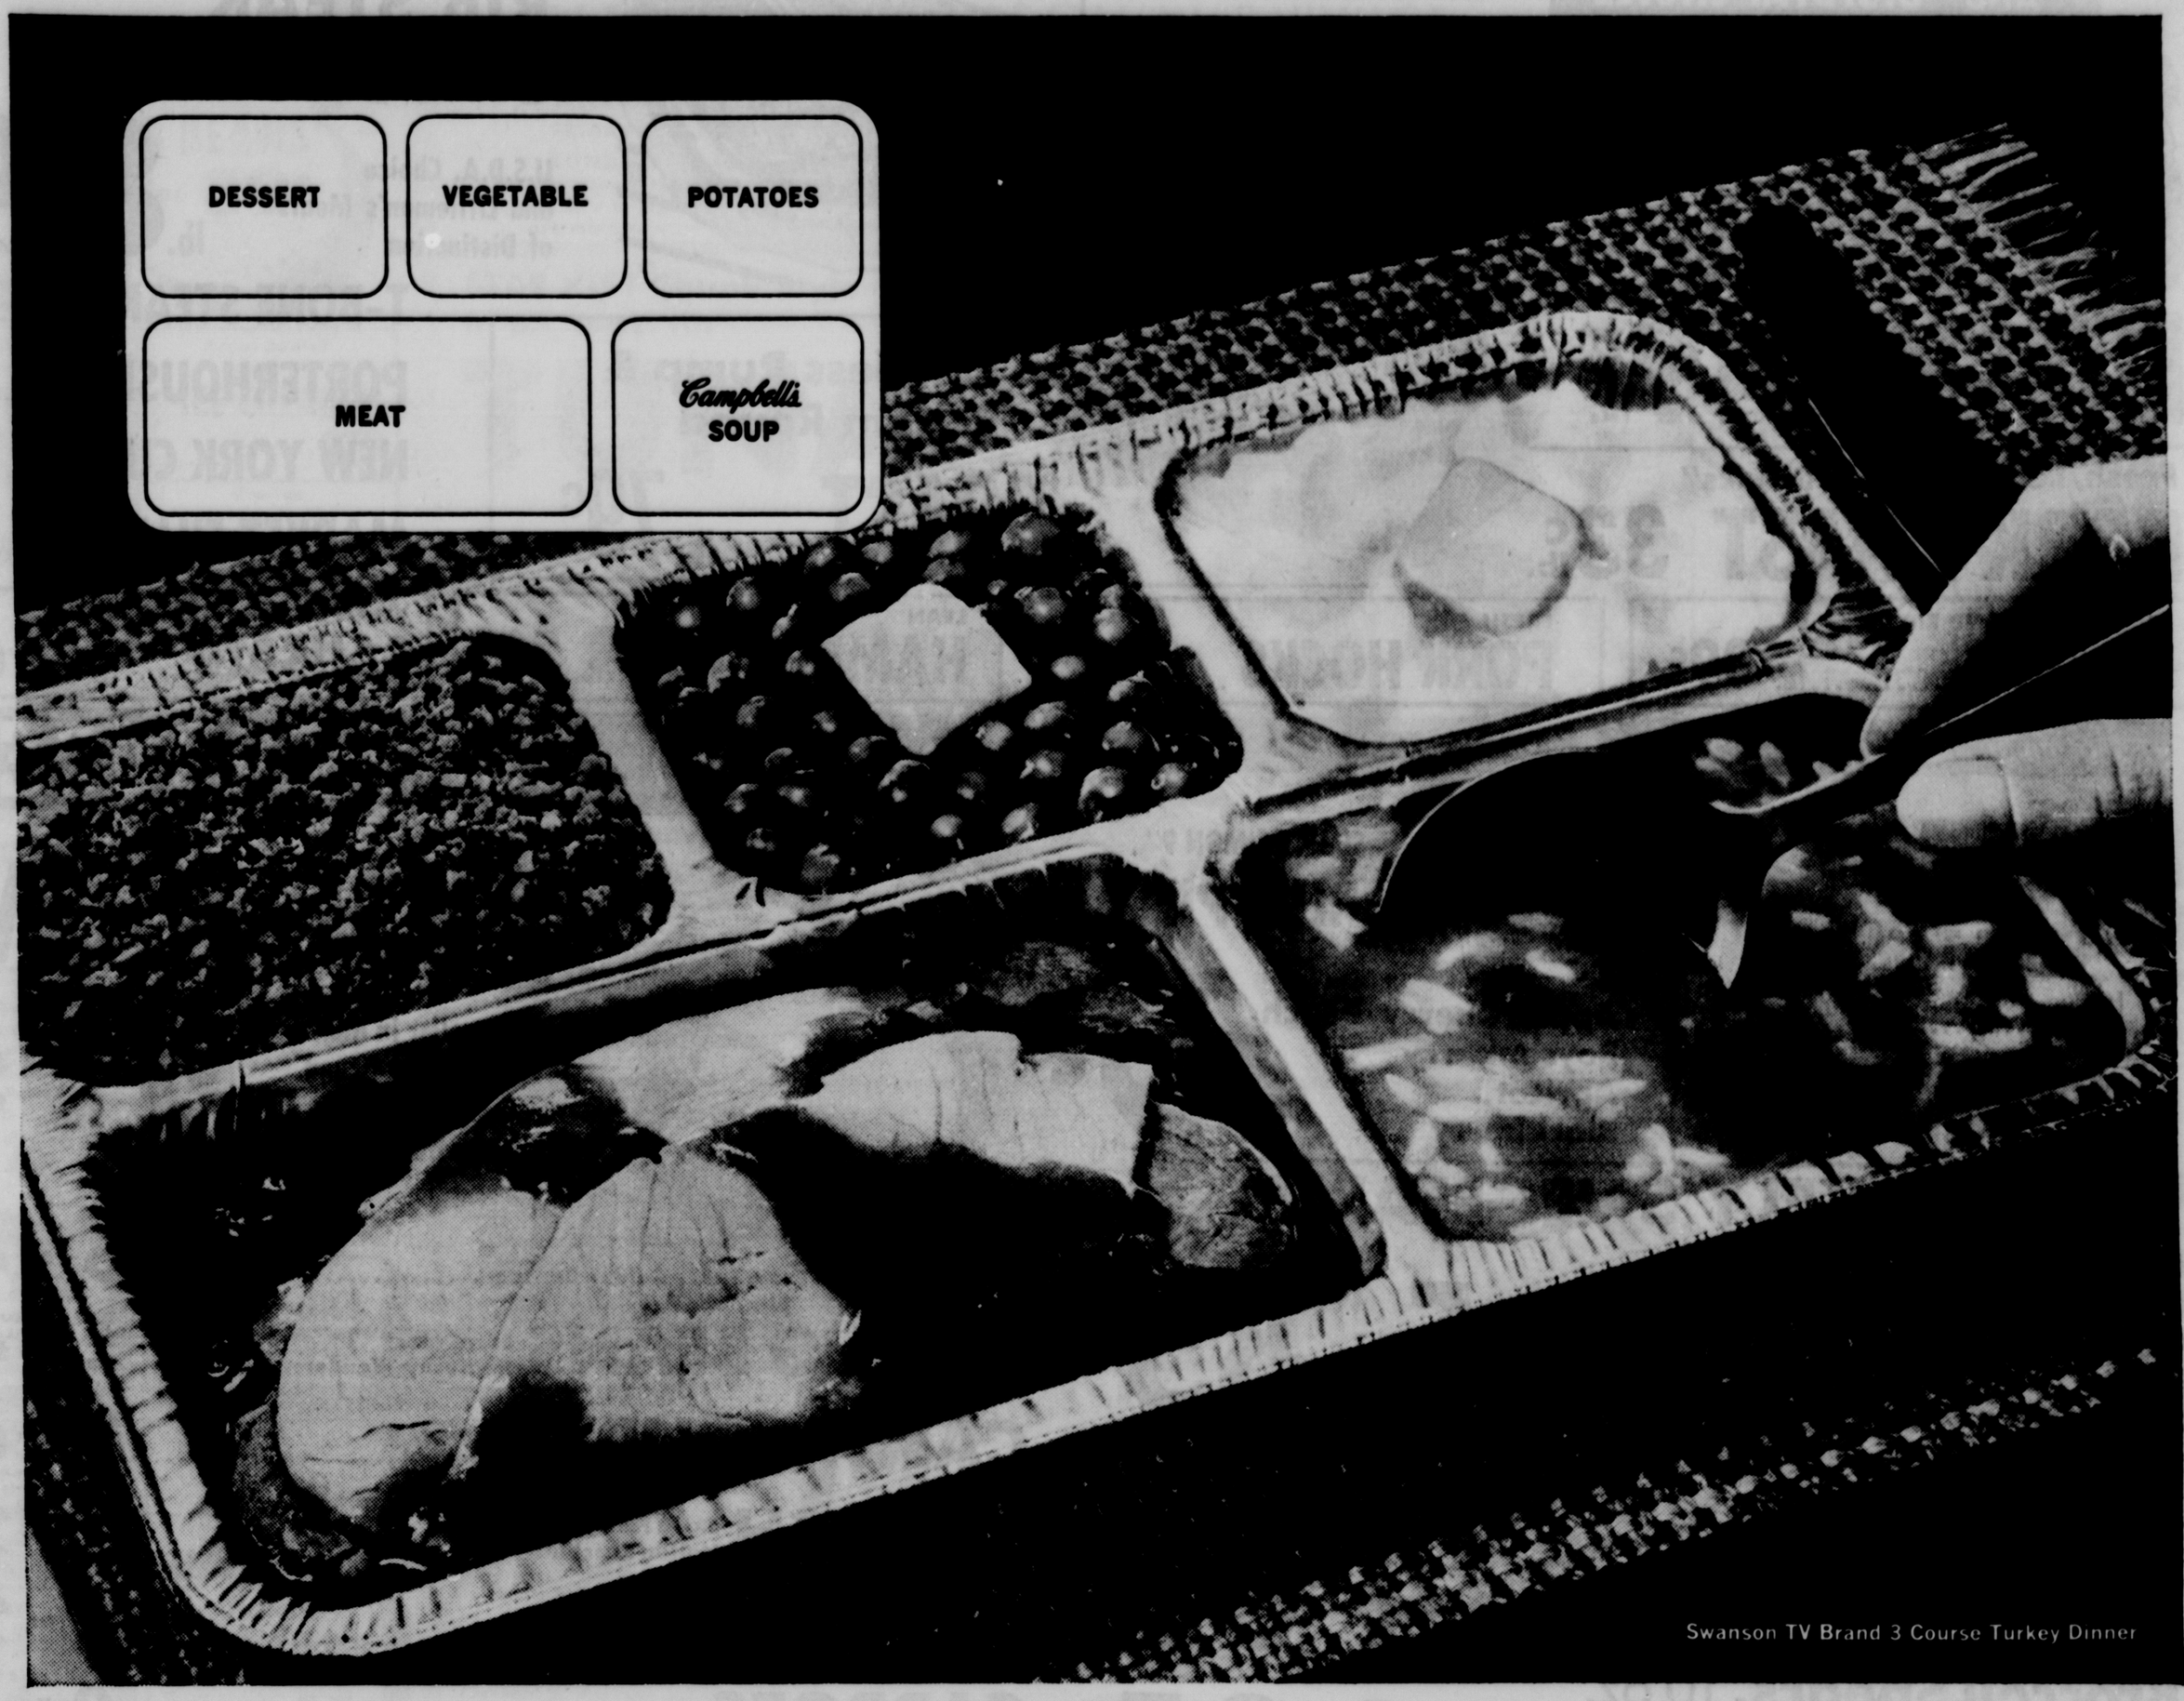
GREAT IDEA IN FROZEN DINNERS!



Swanson TV Brand 3 Course Turkey Dinner

New....3 Course Dinners from Swanson

Now, Swanson (who created the famous TV Brand Dinner) has come up with another wonderful frozen dinner idea—a dinner complete from soup to dessert, and all in the same handy tray!

It's the new Swanson TV Brand 3 Course Dinner . . . available in three varieties, all family favorites.

Take, for example, the Swanson 3 Course Turkey Dinner. First course: tasty Campbell's Tomato Rice Soup, hot and hearty. Second course: tender, juicy slices of turkey, carved only from meaty breasts and thighs. Plus the traditional trimmings . . . delicately seasoned white-and-wheat-bread dressing, fluffy whipped potatoes, tender green peas. Third course: sweet 'n' spicy apple crisp . . . perfect dessert for a delightful meal!

And you can choose from two other kinds of new Swanson 3 Course Dinners, too . . . Salisbury Steak and Fried Chicken (see menus at far right).

It's the newest, the biggest, the most exciting idea since dinners were first frozen . . . Swanson 3 Course Dinners. Treat your family to all three kinds!

Save 25¢ on Each New Swanson 3 Course Dinner You Try

Here's all you do:

- Buy one, two, or three new Swanson 3 Course Dinners
- Send your name and address, and the Swanson blue triangle with the words "3 Course Dinner" from the front panel of one, two, or three new Swanson 3 Course Dinner packages to 3 COURSE DINNERS, P. O. Box 45-C, Mt. Vernon 10, N. Y.
- Swanson will send you 25¢ for each new 3 Course Dinner you try—maximum refund 75¢. Limit—one refund per family. Offer expires July 31, 1963.

SALISBURY STEAK—Campbell's Chicken Noodle Soup, Salisbury Steak with Mushroom Gravy, Whipped Potatoes, Green Peas, Apple-Apricot Crisp

FRIED CHICKEN—Campbell's Vegetable Soup, Fried Chicken, Whipped Potatoes, Corn, Apple Brown Betty

MARIN BUSINESS And INDUSTRY

By HARRY CRAFT

Plating Firm Moves To Marin; Northgate Garage Is Announced

Specification Chromium Co., a new business at 712 Francisco Boulevard, San Rafael, has been opened by David Kilmurray of Novato. Kilmurray, who specializes in industrial plating (chrome, brass, tin, cadmium and zinc) and aluminum anodizing, transferred his shop from Vallejo about a month ago. His work is "plating to dimensions" and differs somewhat from the decorative work of San Rafael Plating works nearby.

Kilmurray has most of his industrial accounts in the East Bay. He moved his plant to Marin to be nearer home—but finds traveling across the San Rafael-Richmond Bridge is costing him more.

TWO FORMER Union Oil service station owners will open Northgate Automotive, a garage servicing both foreign and American cars, at 4190 Redwood Highway, in the old Minimax building opposite Terra Linda.

Heinz Eiberger, co-owner of Terra Linda Union Oil Service, has sold out to his partner Helmut Wendler who will keep the station going under the same name. John Gugel operator of the Union station at Second Street and Lincoln Avenue, San Rafael for the past three years, has sold out to his assistant David Munro of San Anselmo. Munro will change the name to Dave's Union Service.

Eiberger and Gugel expect to open in another week—as soon as the building has been adapted to repair service.

RAY'S FLYING A SERVICE, 1304 Second Street, San Rafael has been taken over by Samuel L. Mize who has been there for the past eight months. New name will be Sam's Flying A Service. Ray Simpers, now living in Mill Valley, has not announced his future business plans.

THE REDWOOD ROOM, liquor store at 640 Fourth Street, San Rafael, has been purchased by Boyd and Stella Vincent of Greenbrae from Mrs. Lorraine Cleland. The transaction was handled by Harry Abras of Redmond Realty.

THRIFTY DRUG STORES in the Corte Madera Shopping Center and in the Montecito Shopping Center, San Rafael are featuring a month-long sale beginning today in observance of the store chain's 34th birthday. Special prices will extend to all types of merchandise.

EMERY J. CURTICE JR., sales manager for L. J. Dervin Ford Co., Novato, has completed his advanced course in sales management at the San Francisco Ford Marketing Institute.

JAMES H. BURTON of Sausalito has been appointed a special agent with the Ralph Steil agency of Prudential Insurance Co. in San Francisco.

A MERGER APPLICATION by Wells Fargo Bank to absorb the State Center Bank in Fresno has been approved. The State Banking Department gave permission for it to operate State's head office and five branches at Kingsburg, San Joaquin, Huron, West Fresno and Clovis.

The monarch butterfly cruises at about 10 miles an hour and may sprint as fast as 30.

Japanese Gardens Due In Slide Show

A showing of colored slides of Japanese gardens and an exhibit of flower arrangements will be the highlights of a meeting June 14 of the San Francisco Bay chapter of Ikebana International at 12:30 p.m. at the Outdoor Art Club, Mill Valley.

New officers of the organization will be installed at the meeting.

Marin Woman Due Graduation Honor

A Mill Valley woman has been selected to represent 541 graduate students due to receive master's degrees from San Francisco State College at its commencement exercises at 1 p.m. Friday in the Cow Palace.

Mrs. Sally Ewen of 425 Laverne Avenue was selected on the basis of scholastic achievement. She achieved a straight "A" average in majoring in English.

But Mrs. Ewen today made light of her honor.

"I don't feel it's any special credit to me, considering how long it took me to get where I am," she commented in declining to provide or pose for a photograph.

This statement, however, requires examination.

Mrs. Ewen, a native of Washington, D.C., attended George Washington University there some years ago without achieving a degree.

She came to Marin County in 1947 and lived at first as a housewife, married to W. H. Ewen, who is an examiner for federal appraisers in San Francisco. But the educational urge persisted and she decided to resume her collegiate work with San Francisco State College. She won her bachelor's degree there in 1956.

The reason for requiring seven more years for her master's degree is simple. She is a working student on the campus, functioning fulltime as secretary of a faculty organization on campus.

At least 36 others from various parts of Marin County will receive degrees from the college, either A.B. or M.A. Recipients of master's degrees will include Joseph D. Rodota, San Rafael recreation director.

In Honor Society

T. Gary Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Rogers, 16 Los Cerros Drive, Greenbrae, has been elected to the Tau Beta Pi national engineering honor society. A senior in mechanical engineering, Rogers will graduate from University of California next February.

Sausalito District Schools Getting Music Instruments

Twelve musical instruments will be presented to the Sausalito School District tonight at the Edgewater Foundation's first "Presentation Banquet" at Sabella's Restaurant, Mill Valley.

The instruments were obtained by a benefit, "Concerto for Children," held last February, and will be received by Cesare Claudio, district music supervisor, who directed the symphony orchestra at the concert. The banquet begins at 7 p.m.

There will be a program given by operatic artists Nancy Cronburg, dramatic soprano; Catherine Paul, coloratura soprano; Donna Petersen, mezzo soprano; Orva Hoskinson, tenor and Richard Frock, bass baritone. Le Roy Miller will accompany.

Hugh A. Lawrence, foundation trustee, will be master of ceremonies.

The foundation, though set up initially to get much-needed musical instruments for school children, is considering other projects, according to William H. Jacob, publicity chairman.

Merchants To Meet

The Fairfax Merchants Assn. will discuss plans for the city's future at a meeting tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. in the lobby of the Crocker-Anglo Bank in Fairfax, Samuel M. Spencer, association president, announced today.

Family Service Agency Elects

Mrs. Alfred P. Otto of Glenwood Avenue, Ross, has been elected president of the board of trustees of the Family Service Agency of Marin County.

Other new officers include Walter Busse, vice president; T. A. Griffinger, treasurer, and Mrs. James Green, secretary.

Six new members were named to the board. They are Mrs. Carl Mosher, Mrs. Green, Mrs. David Van Pelt, Mrs. J. Richard Melbostad, John Bissinger and Lawrence Wright.

Housing Redeveloper Gets Payment Notice

Marin County Housing Authority commissioners Monday gave notice to redeveloper James H. Scheuer he has 90 days to make payment of $419,805 on 167 acres of ridge land at Marin City. Scheuer has an option on the land and, if he does not make payment, must begin paying interest, according to Bert Klahn, executive director.

The commission heard there are now 494 families living in the housing area, a decrease of eight from last month. Five families moved into the "pole houses."

Two families who are over income in the low-rent project will be permitted to remain longer until investigation is made to find other housing.

Klahn was authorized to borrow $75,000 on Hilarita Housing Project from a bank to make the first payment on underwriting the redevelopment project at Marin City.

A request from attorney Thomas M. Ryan to sublet office space from Dr. M. Read for law offices in the temporary Marin City commercial area was approved, and commissioners agreed to continue to carry insurance through Marin Insurance Agents Assn.

Yale Graduate

Richard G. Drosendahl of 617 Las Colindas Road, Terra Linda, will be graduated from Yale University, New Haven, Conn., Monday with a certificate in highway traffic.

Want To Paint? Here's A Chance

People who have always had a yen to dabble in oils will have an unusual opportunity Saturday and Sunday at the second annual Tamalpais Valley Art and Craft Show.

A large canvas will be set up, and for a small fee, visitors to the show will be allowed to take a few strokes with a brush. At the end of the show, the abstract result will be auctioned off.

There will also be a silent auction of items contributed by artists. The show will be at the Tamalpais Valley Improvement Club from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday and noon to 8 p.m. Sunday.

Board Delays Action On Legion Hall

Because of absence of two county sueprvisors yesterday, the remaining three postponed for one week any action on county participation with the City of San Rafael in a recreation program in the San Rafael American Legion building.

City recreation director Joseph D. Rodota told the supervisors of the proposed scheme whereby the county's senior citizen headache might find partial solution, at least so far as its most painful section localized in San Rafael was concerned.

He said that if the county paid half the overall cost of something over $300, quite likely the senior citizens would use the building about half the time.

County recreation director Kelvin J. Nelson indicated approval of the plan and said the building is "perfect" for the purpose.

Sixty per cent of all manufacturing jobs are in the New England, Middle Atlantic and East North Central States, the Labor Department reports.

Santa Venetia Junior High To Give Diplomas

Santa Venetia Junior High School will have outdoor commencement exercises for 131 graduates at the school recreation area June 13 at 6:30 p.m.

Dr. Bert C. Corona, superintendent of San Rafael schools, will speak to the graduating class.

Student speakers will be Charlene Nagel, Lonnie Masouredis, and Laurie Oliver. Chris Bachich will give the invocation.

Kenneth A. Samuelson, president of the San Rafael Optimist Club, will present the Optimist Club award. Dr. Mildred B. Barnard, assistant superintendent of elementary instruction, will present the academic award sponsored by the faculty.

Walter J. Doll of the San Rafael Board of Education will present the diplomas, assisted by Virgil Birdsall, vice principal of the school. The school band, directed by Jean Stevens, will provide music.

Principal Lawrence Geiger announced there will be a dance for the graduating class at the school after the ceremonies.

McNear's Estate Over $200,000

Seward Bailey McNear of Ross, who died in 1959 at age 86, left an estate of more than $200,000, according to a tax appraiser's report filed in Marin Superior Court this week.

McNear was retired president of Sperry Flour Co., and active in property management until his death on Nov. 29, 1959.

Under the terms of McNear's will, his widow, Josephine Barroll McNear of Kentfield, gets $35,600. The rest of the estate is shared equally by his son, John Barroll McNear of Kentfield, and his daughter, Amanda McNear Hendrickson of San Francisco, who get $82,395 each.

Spiders live high and low. Jumping spiders have been discovered at 22,000 feet at Mount Everest. Others are found in deep caves.
